WAS THE MONEY BURIED RECENTLY

Friends of "Buck" Washington Believe Money Found With Bones in Sewer Pit Was Buried Lately

That the pot of money, supposed to have been found by "Buck" Washington, the colored excavator who dug up the ancient bones and home-made coffin while working on the sewer ditch between Third and Fourth streets on Cheyenne avenue, was buried within the last two years, is the opinion of the friends of friends of "Buck" who saw the color of the coin with which he was apparently flush before leaving for points unknown.

Westover Overruled Demurrer

Judge W. H. Westover, in district court Monday, overruled the demurrer filed by County Judge Tash and Attorney Basye in the case of the injunction asked by Harrington, Fisher and Rooney against Tash and Basyne to prevent them prosecuting the latter on the charge of the illegal possession of liquor in their room at the Drake hotel during the famous Chadron blackmail case.

In the demurrer Tash and Basye questioned the right of Judge Westover to grant an injunction to prefile their answer. When their an-

Seventy-five friends, in twenty autos, visited at the Abley farm committee in charge of the surprise finest of its kind ever served in Box

Farmers, bankers, merchants, capitalists and politicians were repof the group during the afternoon. Prominent in the foreground was ing as "a producer of Irish cobblers."

The committee had tastily decorated the home in white and gold colors. Also present at the reception were Emory Abley and his family of Clifford S. Robertson, of Bayard, Hemingford and Amos Abley from Omaha. The gift of the latter was $50 in gold pieces and a beautiful boquet of American Beauty roses to his mother. There were numerous valuable and useful presents and letters of congratulation were received from friends in many parts of the country. Rev. Brown, of Hemingford, made a short talk in honor of the occasion.

The occasion is one which will be long remembered by all who took part. The guests enjoyed being told of the political devision of the household. Mr. Abley is a republican He reads the Times and has a photo of Colonel Roosevelt in his part of the house. Mrs. Abley is an admirer of democratic doctrine. She reads The Alliance Herald and keeps a photo of President Wilson in her part of the house.

Friday Good Roads Day

Tomorrow, Friday, December 7th will be the second Good Roads Day for Alliance. Because of the fact that the hay which was recently scattered along the Alliance-Hoffland -Antioch road is being rapidly burned up by sparks from passing engines and being blown away and because that the weather will probably soon not permit of road work, it has been decided to complete as much of the road work as possible on Friday.

S. W. Thompson will be in charge of the work tomorrow. He wants from fifteen to twenty patriotic citizens to lend their aid in scattering cinders and helping unload the four auto trucks which will do the hauling.

Art Wright, John Wallace and aVughan & Son have each promised a truck for tomorrow. These three trucks, with the new Community Club truck, will make four trucks doing the hauling. Si promises to keep every man busy who comes to help. Everyone is urged to bring their dinner with them and be at the club office at 7:30, o'clock Friday morn-

The M. E. iadies are giving a food sale on December 15th. Remember

Joe Smith made a business trip to Antioch on Tuesday.

MYSTERIOUS LIGHT DISTURBS THE VALLEY

Trainmen and Others Watch Light Soar Over North Platte Valley in Night Time

That some one is operating an airplane or other mode of aerial transportation over the North Platte valley in the night itime, is the sus-picion of a number of Burlington trainmen operating out of Alliance and of other people who have seen the mysterious light which soared ifferent nights last week over the rainmen saw the mysterious ght in the air several evenings last week. On Saturday night one freight crew, while waiting at Bayard, for thirty minutes watched the light as it moved up and down the valley. They reported the matter Sunday to The Herald office and an investigation has been started.

The crews which saw the light say that it was high in the air and that the light was quite bright; that it moved swiftly from place o place. They stated that it could not have been a searchlight, as there were no clouds on which a light of that nature could have been thrown.

The "Will o' the Wisp" has been seen often in the valley at night during the summer season, when climatic conditions were right. However, because of the fact that this is not the season for the natural phenomenon known as the "Will o' the Wisp" and because the light was so high in the air it is suspicioned that the light was an indication of human agencies Whether they are friendly or otherwise is yet to be determined. The certificates are arranged for the placing of war savings stamps thereon and are an obligation of the government when one or more stamps have been placed thereon. The stamps will have a maturity value of $5.00 each on January 1, 1923. They can be purchased for $4.12 in January and for one cent more each month. Four per cent interest, compounded quarterly, is added to the cost of the stamps. They can be purchased when issued at any of the banks or the postoffice. The certificates are now ready for distribution.

ROADS ALL MARKED FROM ALLIANCE WEST

Secretary Fisher Placed Large Signs at Cross-Roads' and Has Highways in Good Shape

All of the public roads between Alliance and Scottsbluff and Bayard, including two routes to Scottsbluff, are plainly marked with permanent signs. Secretary Fisher of the Alliance Community Club, using the new road truck, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday placing the signs so that the passer-by in the swiftest car or the slowest one may read them with ease without stoping his speed.

Every main cross road leading to another town on the routes is marked with a four-by-four timber, set upright in the ground, on which is fastened a three-foot sign, in the form of an arrow, giving the direction and distance. The letters "A B. C" standing for "Alliance Community Club" are stenciled on the signs. The colors are yellow and
