Lloyd's Column

Sheriff Cox has a new steno-grapher, "Dutch Maunier" has taken this important position. The sheriff gave a great sigh of relief when he dictated his daily letter to "Dutch," if there is anything the sheriff dislikes to do is to write letters. Dutch proceeded to write the letter and put it on the sheriff's desk for inspection. The sheriff wanted to impress attorney Basye so he took the completed letter into Lee's liar and handed him the letter. Lee took the letter and looked it over and turned to the sheriff with a bewildered look, "why, why whats this, you know sheriff when I took this little of job I done didn't contract to be an interpreter." Dutch had written the letter in French.

Lloyd's Column

The Major told a few little incidents of his life in the army. On a late occasion, a friend of his enlisted as a private in the army. He was high up in civil life being Pres. of the Pacific Telephone Co. One day it was his lot to work in the cook tent and peel potatoes. He didn't like this and said that he had never peeled potatoes for anyone in his life. So he went out in the camp to visit another camp, here he saw a young man doing the same job that he was. Asking him his name the young man answered, "Tiffany. Not the son of the New York Jeweler, said the disconcerted K. M. Yes," said the young man, the same." This opened the eyes of the other man and he went back and cheerfully peeled potatoes the rest of the day.

This little story tends to show the democratic spirit that prevails in the army today.

Read Good Books.
Young women dependent upon their own efforts should give a thought to tomorrow as well as today. The girl alone hasn't anyone to look after her interests, so she must guard them herself. She should keep track of how she spends her salary, and should also join a good benevolent society, so that in the event of an illness or an accident she will be assured of proper medical treatment, and at the same time receive the benefit all such organizations provide.

LESSON FOR MARCH 3
JESUS BRINGING PEACE.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 4:35-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—Jehovah hath done great things for us whereof we are glad.—Ps. 125:3.
DEVOTIONAL READING—Ps. 147:5, 14-18.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Matt. 8:23-34; Luke 8:22-39; Matt. 14:22-33; Luke 9:37-43A.
PRIMARY LESSON MATERIAL—Mark 4:35-41.
MEMORY VERSE—Even the wind and the sea obey him.—Mark 4:41.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Telling the good news about the Prince of Peace.
MEMORY VERSE—Mark 6:19.

This lesson is a most dramatic one. Surprise and revelation, rebuke and encouragement are rapidly interchanged. Leaving the multitude to whom he had been preaching, Jesus asks the disciples to pass over with him to the other side of the lake (v. 35). "Let us pass over," Jesus never asks his disciples to go where he will not go. How vivid is the touch in v. 36: "They took him as he was." He was tired and weary, he whose invitation is to "all who are weary and heavy laden." He who "had not where to lay his head," is carried by loving hands into the boat, and is soon lost in restful slumber. Both Master and friends are soon to meet a great sinner but first they must encounter a great storm.

I. The Great Storm. The Master of forces sleeps calmly on. Why not? Who else could afford to be so apparently indifferent! Not so these disciples. They have yet to know him perfectly, and hence it is natural that in their alarm they should awaken him as they view the rapidly filling boat, and exclaim, "Master, carest thou not that we perish?" Weary and unconcerned as he appears to have been, he arose and rebuked the wind and the waves. Wind and waves are material things and therefore not susceptible to rebuke. Jesus fronted the intangible cause; he rebuked the devil who was responsible for this turbulence; and the calm was commensurate with the storm. The Psalmist says, "Great peace have they that love thy law." Individuals and nations are now in the midst of a "great storm," a day of crime, stress, distress and tragedy; struggle, temptation, grief and loss, and the cry "Lord save us!" is growing louder and more insistent. Some of us look for the early return of the king, but all should listen for his words "Peace be still" for it is the peace which he alone can give that has power to calm the growing turbulence of this age.

II. The Great Sinner. Reaching the other side, they entered the land of Gadara and there met a demoniac who is, we believe, a type of the great sinner, for he was, (a) without restraint; "no man could bind him" (v. 3); (b) he was injuring himself, "cutting," etc. (v. 5); (c) he was separated from his friends, "dwelt among the tombs" (v. 3); (d) he was "unclean" (v. 2). There was also evidence of the futility of human resolutions and the vainness of attempt at control or reformation (v. 4). "No man had the strength to tame him." Note the torment of his life (v. 7). As he healed this man, the people saw their illegal gain interfered with, and hence the selfish request that Jesus should "depart out of their coasts" (v. 17), and this even in the face of what had been done for the stricken one. Selfishness knows no law. The Jews could not eat pork but they were raising it to sell to the Gentiles of the land, which amounted to an insult to their God, and an evasion of their law. Jesus "permitted" the demons to enter the swine thereby rebuking the avarice of the people and conclusively showing that they had left the demoniac. Luke tells us (8:37) that the Gadarenes were "taken with a great fear." Fear of what? Surely no fear of the Galilean teacher, but rather of the effect of the restored man's testimony on their material prosperity. Big business will have many sins to account for in the face of greed for gain while ignoring the cry of the afflicted amid unsuitable and unsanitary living conditions. Church members have no right to condemn the liquor traffic, while they rent stores to carry on this destructive business.

A suggested outline for this lesson would be as follows:

- I. A Great Storm—Ch. 4:35-41.
The command of Jesus—v. 35.
The weariness of Jesus—v. 36.
The alarm of the disciples—v. 38.
The indifference of Jesus—v. 38.
The great calm—v. 39.
- II. A Glorious Cure—Ch. 5:1-20.
The Gadarene a type of the sinner—vv. 1-5.
(Unclean, separated, no restraint, self injury).
The Gadarene cleansed—vv. 6-15.
(He recognized purity—desired communion—was assigned to service).
- III. The Great Mission—vv. 18-20.
An improper request (v. 17).
A proper request (v. 18).
A hard request (v. 19).
A great result (see Luke 8:40).
The nations are in storm. The demons of passion, hate and lust of power are loosed in the world; let us "beseech him" to return that he may speak "peace."

NOTICE—M. P. KINKAID
Congressman Kinkaid asks us to announce that, as the quota of free garden seeds is inadequate to supply more than one-third of the heads of families in this Congressional District he will this year send allotments only to those who write for them. As garden seeds are not desired by a large portion of his constituents he wishes to supply them to those who will utilize them. By this means of distribution waste will be prevented and larger allotments assured to all who will plant the seeds forwarded to them. Address Mr. Kinkaid, House of Representatives, Washington D.
