Mrs. C. Walbridge left Monday night for her homestead near Newcastle, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann autoed to Crawford Sunday, returning Monday.

E. H. Boyd has purchased the F. J. Was home at 911 Laramie avenue.

George Mollring is moving into his new home just purchased on West Seventh street. He is also having a new garage erected at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brittain returned Monday from Broken Bow, where they visited over Sunday with relatives.

Jerry Rowan left Sunday for Union City, Michigan, where he will visit a couple of weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Chas. Feagins entertained the Woman's Guild of St. Matthew's Episcopal church on Wednesday.

The Misses Dee and Barbara King have returned from San Francisco, California, where they spent the winter.

Cecil Smith returned Friday to his home in Council Bluffs. Mr. Smith has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith.

S. W. Thompson bought the beautiful home of Mrs. C. H. Tully on the corner of Ninth and Laramie streets, and will move into it about the first of July.

M. E. Holloway captured a young coyote last Sunday in the town limits. W. E. Dicky, who was in the party at the time, accused the coyote of being a St. Bernard pup, but the viciousness of the animal soon changed his opinion. We haven't learned as yet what was done with the coyote, but the supposition is that it is being trained as a lap dog for the Kaiser.

The Misses Read returned Monday from their trip west, having spent an enjoyable vacation around Tacoma, Washington.

The Thomas-Bald Investment company report the sale of a fine tract of Box Butte county land to an eastern Nebraska farmer on Saturday.

The retaining wall just completed in front of Judge Tash's, Mrs. Lester's and S. H. Cole's residences improves the appearances of that portion of Box Butte avenue remarkably.

Out of 26,000 agents for the Equitable Life Assurance society, John W. Guthrie, of Alliance, held second place, and his brother, T. F. Guthrie, held third place, in the month of April, in the amount of business written. Alliance can well be proud of men who hold this kind of leadership in an organization like that of the Equitable.

Mrs. Betty Sharp, Alliance police matron, left on Sunday for Camp Lewis, on the western coast, to visit her son who is a member of the army and who will soon leave for France. Mrs. Sharp will make a rather extended trip, stopping off at the various larger cities to study the methods used in handling the work in which she is interested—that of protecting the young girls and women who visit and live in Alliance.

Three more of the home boys have answered the call for navy recruits. Merritt Chaffee and Charles Spacht, who have been attending the university at Lincoln, enlisted at Omaha. Charles Spacht and Norman McCorkle left on Tuesday night for Omaha, where they will join Merritt Chaffee and will leave for the Great Lakes to be trained for service in the navy.

The Herald's job printing department has turned out an excellent placard, artistically set and printed in three colors, with a United States flag and the wording: "A man from this house is fighting in France." The card is thirteen by fourteen inches in size and will be a credit to the window of any home to display it. These cards can be purchased at The Herald office.

John W. Thomas, live stock editor of The Herald, begins in this issue, in the Lincoln department, an interesting review of the leasing of state school lands for mineral purposes under the title of "Leasing of State Lands for Minerals." The citizens of western Nebraska, who have been wanting a full and complete record of the proceedings of the state board to date and of the record of the proceedings of the state board to date and of the leasing proposition, will read this history of the situation with much interest. It is written in an unbiased manner and will clear up some facts which have been subject to misrepresentation.

Charles W. Pool, secretary of state and candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the Sixth district, in which Alliance is located, was an Alliance visitor on Monday of this week. "Charley" is very confident that he will secure the nomination with a safe majority.
