CALVERT IS OPTIMISTIC FOR CATTLE INDUSTRY

Representative of St. Joseph Stock Yards Says Everything Points Towards Bright Future.

G. W. Calvert, representing the St. Joseph Stock Yards company, was an Alliance visitor the first of the week. He is here getting acquainted with stockmen and boosting the St. Joseph market. Mr. Calvert resides in Lincoln and has recently made a tour of the east central portion of the state. He states that there is a very large acreage of corn in that part of the state and that conditions up to this time could not be better for a bumper yield. While the wheat crop in that section will yield only from ten to twenty bushels to the acre, last year there was practically no wheat raised in that portion of the state.

Speaking of the live stock situation, Mr. Calvert asserts that he can see only a bright future for the stockmen, especially those who make it a business to raise stock. Prices are now higher than ever known before and the demand for beef increases. Fairly fleshy cattle that in former years sold only for feeders will also be sought after by the packers, which will force feeders to pay higher prices than last year for this same class of cattle.

"If the prospects are not bright now for the cattle raisers," says Mr. Calvert, "it is hard to tell just what it would take to brighten them."

SAVED CAR BY PROMPT USE OF HANDY SPADE

John W. Guthrie, Alliance Insurance Man, Threw Dirt Over Blazing Carburetor.

John W. Guthrie, Alliance insurance man, saved his new Elcar touring car Monday afternoon while driving north when six miles south of Bridgeport, by quickly stopping the car, grabbing a handy spade and throwing a few spadefuls of dirt over the blazing carburetor, which was shooting fire several feet in the air.

With Mr. Guthrie in the auto at the time of the accident were his two daughters—Katherine and Florence, Miss Marie Buchsenstein and Miss Agnes Kniest.

Miss Kniest bravely lifted the hood as Mr. Guthrie stopped the car, allowing him to throw the soil on the flaming carburetor. A Delco ignition expert, who was only a short distance behind, assisted in splicing the ignition wires from which the insulation had been burned and the party came on to Alliance.

The accident was the only one on an enjoyable trip which began on Wednesday of last week and included Cheyenne and Denver. While at Denver the party enjoyed several runs by auto into the nearby mountains.

Misses Katherine and Florence Guthrie have been visiting their father for about three weeks and will continue their visit for another week at least.

OBITUARY

At his home seven miles northwest of Alliance at 6 o'clock a. m., with typhoid fever, Walter Leroy Colerick, born in Alliance, December 10, 1903, died July 5, 1918, age 15 years, 7 months, 21 days.

Little Walter Has Gone Home. Now the family chain is broken; One link from that happy band; Those we dearly love has left us; Left us for a happier land.

Like the rose his beauty faded. Short their pilgrimage below. Sickness has prevailed upon him. Jesus called him, he must go.

Vain were all the kind endeavors To restore his health again— Mother, physician, none could help him.

Why were all their labors vain? His earthly years were few in number; Oh how soon he passed away. With his sisters and his brothers, They could not prolong his stay.

He was borne to the church yard; There his lovely form was laid; There among the fading relics, There his friends laid him away.

Weep not father; weep not mother; Trust in God to meet again— Yes our dear one has crossed the river; Free from sorrow, sickness, pain.

Sisters, brothers, try to meet him In a better world than this; Here is no abiding city— There's a land of perfect bliss.

Run your race with faith and patience While your lamp holds out to burn. When the Savior comes to call you Then you will rest with him above.

CARD OF THANKS To those who have been with us in our bereavement and by kind words and kindly acts have tried to lessen our sorrow, we extend our sincere thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Colerick and family. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Colerick Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Colerick Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boon and family.

Child Died of Old Age.

About two years ago a boy of seven died at Zurich of old age. His case was exceptionally unique, for he was the youngest member of a family who had won local repute as athletes. The oldest brother was a first-class boxer, while the younger had won many prizes on the sports ground. Doctors from all parts of Europe flocked to Zurich to try to diagnose the boy's malady and effect a successful cure, but in vain.

Conjugal Felicity.

"My wife and I never argue, so we get along beautifully." "How do you manage it?" "When anything goes wrong I always figure that it was my fault and she never disagrees with me." —Boston Transcript.

Lloyd Thomas, editor of The Herald on Monday received word that the consignment of 50,000 baby trout, which he requested from the government for planting in the Niobrara river, are to arrive at Alliance soon and that preparations should be made for caring for the trout when they arrive, in order that they be planted without loss. Alliance anglers who are desirous of seeing the nearby streams planted with good game fish, will assist greatly by offering to donate the use of their autos and time when the trout arrive. Cans holding not less than five gallons must be provided at this end for taking the fish from the fish car direct to the stream. The department notifies that unless due provision shall have been made to receive and properly care for the fish, they will not be taken from the train. Notice will be given Lloyd by wire when the fish are to arrive. Those who are willing to assist should notify either Roy Beckwith, F. E. Holsten or Lloyd Thomas without delay in order that arrangements may be completed before notice is received that the fish are to arrive.
