CANDIDAT FOR THE STATE SENATE, 28TH DISTRICT

Chadron Nebraska Republican

I did not solicit this office but was urged to run by my friends who suggested I was the man for the place. I come to you through the newspaper as it will be impossible for me to see you and solicit your votes. I am well known in the western part of the district but a great many of the voters in the eastern part of the district never heard of J. W. Good, so it will be necessary for me to tell you who I am, and where I came from.

I was born and raised in Hopkinsville, Kentucky. My parents died when I was a small boy and I was bound out to work for a horse, a bridle and a saddle until I was 21 years old. I came to Nebraska in 1883 came to Dawes county in 1886, took up a homestead and tree claim, and proved up on them. Have added to them until I have two ranches among the best in the district. I do not speak of this boastfully, but to show you that I have made a success of my own business why I solicit your vote, or why you should vote for me. I was raised on a farm and have farmed all my life and am one of the largest farmers in this district. My sympathy naturally would be with the needs for the betterment of the farmer. As to the stockmen, I am known all over the state as being one of the largest hog men in the state, also raising cattle extensively and my sympathy would be with anything that might help the stockmen.

I was in the clothing and shoe business for 25 years so I have had 25 years of business experience and feel I am broad and fair enough with the farmers, the stockmen, the business men to see the needs of all as a whole.

The great question before the people today is to do the things that will help win this war. I am trying to do my bit by working a little harder to raise and produce a little more, by being a little more active in soliciting and taking liberty bonds, war savings stamps, helping the Red Cross and also helping the Y. M. C. A. drive. Some other things I stand for is better roads, better schools, better churches, better cattle, better hogs and better people and to do all we can to win this war as quickly as possible without sacrificing too many of our boys.

As I said before I did not solicit this office but was asked by your friends to make this run. I am willing to sacrifice my time for my country at this time at any cost.

I will appreciate your vote November 5, 1918, also anything you may do or say in my behalf.

Respectfully,
J. W. Good for State Senate
28th District, Nebraska.
