Huge Parade Was Led By Spanish War Veterans Guns, Fireworks and Music by Local Band Take Prominent Part

Alliance celebrated the signing of the armistice Monday by a monster parade which was participated in by practically every man, woman and child in the entire city. It was a gala day for everybody (everybody but Germany) and the citizens of Alliance were eager to show and express their feelings which was evidenced by the firing of every old musket that could be found in the city, the display of fireworks and the splendid music by the Alliance Fire Department band.

It is unnecessary to say the parade started on time, it was scheduled to start at 7:30 and everybody was in the line of march and eager to start the grand procession long before that time.

The Spanish war veterans led the parade which consisted of the Home Guards, the fire department, the fire department band, railroad shop boys, ladies of the Red Cross, ladies canteen department, besides hundreds of other enthusiastic citizens who joined in the parade.

Old William Hohenzollern, commonly known as Kaiser Bill, in effigy was put in a cage and hauled around the streets where he received numerous loads of buck shot before he was finally burned at the stake.

The fire department boys handled the five rockets which were furnished by the Community Club. Among the humorous features of the parade was Hardy Cole's goat which carried the sign: "We sure got the Kaiser's goat."

After the parade the Fire Department Band marched around the business section rendering some fine selections. All will have to admit the boys had plenty of "pep" and were blessed with good lungs.

It was a grand old day for everybody and all were out to express their feelings.

Nebraska is organizing to raise $2,000,000 for the United War Work campaign, November 11-18. The national fund of $170,000,000 will finance all the war work of the following organizations during the year 1919:

Knights of Columbus
Jewish Welfare Board
