

BRIEF BITS FOR BUSY READERS

Born, February 3, to Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Jay, former Alliance people but now of Trouble, Nebr., an eight-pound baby girl.

Lloyd C. Thomas, editor of The Alliance Herald, was a special guest at the Knife and Fork Club luncheon Thursday. Former Senator E. J. Burkett gave a talk on "Ethics in Business." He explained how ethics is the real foundation of any substantial business. The speaker for the next meeting will be Prof. J. H. Fransden of the dairy department of the agricultural college, who will talk on Nebraska dairy products.—From Lincoln State Journal, Feb. 1.

County Attorney Lee Baye of Alliance was successful last week in winning the case of Chas. Rhoades vs. the County of Scotts Bluff before the state compensation commission at Lincoln. The case was tried under the employer's liability act. Rhoades was awarded a verdict of $3,000 for injuries sustained when a pile driver on which he was working overturned, causing the loss of an arm and other injuries.

Mrs. T. G. Waddell, formerly of Alliance, came to the city Tuesday morning on a short business and pleasure trip. She returned Wednesday night to their home at University Place, Nebr. Mr. Waddell was formerly a well known Alliance railroad man. They lived for a time at Charleston, S. C., and then returned to Nebraska to make their home.

C. O. Rosenberger, well known successful Hemingford real estate dealer, was in the city on business Tuesday.

The day ought not to be so very far distant when intelligent, thoughtful people will select their family paper with as much care as they do their preacher or their school teacher, for, as a matter of fact, the family paper may have as much to do in shaping public and private morals as either the teacher or preacher. A public journal in the family circle—be it good, bad, or indifferent—is read, more or less, by every member of the family who reads at all. The teacher has the child or young person five or six hours a day; the teacher talks at or over them an hour or two a week, while a paper is in the home the whole week through, and is generally thoroughly read because it is always at hand—if for no better reason.

American Railway Express Company Agent R. M. Tinkoon of Alliance has shown the patriotic spirit by seeing that every former employe of his office who went to the army has a job when he returns. J. E. Simpson, formerly of this office, was stationed at Fort Winfield Scott for twenty-three months and was on ship ready to sail when the armistice was signed and sailing orders cancelled. He came back to Alliance about a month ago and was given a position here. He has now been promoted to the position of agent at Riverton, Wyo., and took up his new duties there on Monday. Horace Anderson of Company G, who went to France, has taken back his old job and is hard at work. Sgt. Myron Kirkpatrick, who went to Fort Taylor, Ky., has taken back his old run as messenger on trains thirty-one and thirty-two, between Alliance and Casper.

With eight inches of snow on Saturday and Sunday and two inches Wednesday night, Alliance and western Nebraska are covered by a mantle of moisture several inches deep. The weather has not been extremely cold, however.

The Antioch, Hoffland and Alliance bus line has been discontinued owing to the closing down of several of the potash plants at the former places and the consequent lack of business.

The Sunday World-Herald has the following to say in regard to George A. Mollring's pacer: "Another Nebraska-owned horse that gives great promise is Empire Express, 2:22 1/4, owned by George A. Mollring of Alliance. Mollring is training the pacer himself and he expects to see it establish a new mark this summer as well as to carry away some of the big purses." The horse is in charge of Lee Getchel, an experienced horseman, who has great faith in the future of his charge.

C. A. Dow has been ill for several days.

Mrs. A. J. Lunn is enjoying a visit from her sister Mrs. Bennett of Idaho.

Dr. Mahaffy is in Omaha on business this week.

Mrs. Ray Mark is spending a few days in Sidney.

Mrs. George Duncan of Grand Island has purchased the F. J. Was property at 523 Cheyenne Ave.

An Alliance business man, speaking of his investment in an enterprise which under present prospects will not pan out well, said he felt something like the colored man who had been found guilty of murder and stood before the judge to be sentenced. He was asked by the judge if he had anything to say before he was sentenced to hang. "Wal, judge," said the colored culprit, "all I got to say is that it's gwine ter be a powerful lesson to me."

Boyd Gambill and family have returned to Alliance to make their home. Mr. Gambill will be associated with Mr. Herman in the Palace Meat Market.

Otto Zamzow, manager of the Horace Bogue store, had business at Antioch Wednesday afternoon.

The Sterling lodge of Trainmen is advertising its eighth annual ball to be given at that place, February 20. Several members of Hard Struggle plan to be in attendance.

Mayor W. E. Rousey is still unable to be at his post at the store. His recent illness has left him in a very weakened condition and although he was able to get down town the first of the week he is not yet sufficiently convalescent to allow much exertion. Butter fat is bringing but forty cents on the local market this week. Butter has taken another drop and now retails for fifty cents per pound.

The Lotspeich Variety store was sold the last of the week by Mrs. Lotspeich to Mesdames laudia B. Dole and Frank Given. Mrs. Dole is a former Central school teacher and has many friends in the city who will wish her success. The new proprietors took personal charge Monday morning.

Miss Godell is the new milliner in charge at the Harper store. Her home is at Portland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mentzer have returned to Alliance and intend to make their home here. Mr. Mentzer was formerly employed at Schafer Bros., but for the past several months has been in military service.

Mr. and Mrs. Kircher have returned to Alliance after spending a few days in Denver.

Mrs. L. Davis who has spent the past two weeks visiting in Alliance has returned to her home in Lincoln.

J. S. Stark, round-house foreman at Seneca, visited friends in Alliance several days this week. Mr. Stark and daughter Louise had minor operations performed.

Mrs. E. J. Hickey visited between trains Thursday on her way to Bridgeport.

It's the service that counts. Early this week The Herald job printing department was called upon to print several thousand large posters for an out-of-state customer. The bills, twenty-two by thirty inches in size, were gotten up and printed entirely within the office and a piece of work that greatly pleased the customer and of which we are, we believe, justly proud.

A wedding of interest to Alliance and Box Butte county people is that of Mr. George E. Neuschwanger to Miss Pearl Mayne, at the home of the bride's parents at Shelby, Iowa, last Wednesday evening, January 29. Both the young people are college graduates and attended the schools at Lincoln together. The bride, one of the most popular young women of the community, is a former student at the Lincoln Conservatory of Music. Mr. Neuschwanger has for the past two years served as county agent in this county and at the annual meeting held recently was re-elected at an increase in salary. The happy couple arrived in Alliance Saturday night and will for the present make their home at 224 East Third street.

Rev. Stephen J. Epler of the Christian church has been chosen by the church at Gering to conduct a three-week evangelistic campaign at that place. During his absence the Alliance pulpit will be filled by Rev. Woten, who was formerly a pastor here. Rev. Epler is a forceful speaker and success will crown his efforts.

F. M. Cole, Jr., of Lakeside was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

F. E. Jesse, owner of the Jesse lake north of Antioch, was in Alliance this week and says work is moving right along and there seems to be no great alarm over the potash situation.

L. Cravath of Long Lake was a business visitor in Alliance the first of the week. Mr. Cravath is an old timer who has made good but now has his place leased and intends to take life easy.

Charles Walker has received his discharge from the army and is spending a few days visiting friends in Alliance.

James Thornton, colored, seems to be of a belligerent nature and probably being unable to come out best with others of his sex, has been beating his wife. Some time ago he beat his wife and was fined twenty-five dollars and costs. He was arrested again Monday on the same charge and was fined fifty dollars and costs. The next time he tries to beat his better half he will probably be given a dose of his own medicine at the whipping post.

Frank Wilson, former well known Alliance business man, arrived in Alliance Saturday night from Los Angeles, where he is now making his home and is engaged in business. He will attend to business matters here and expects to return to California the last of the week.

J. W. Tillman, a crippled soldier, on his way to his home in Montana, was picked up by the officers the first of the week on account of being in a drunken condition. Another soldier boy came to police court and stated that Tillman had suffered from shell shock in France, was busted flat, and wanted to get to his home. The fine of $25 was suspended, the costs paid, and the soldier boy sent homeward with a warning that liquor is bad for soldiers as well as civilians.

TIME TO ACT

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness; Profit by Alliance People's Experiences

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are frequent symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but generally return with greater intensity. Don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up their use until the desired results are obtained. Good work in Alliance proves the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. Thomas Ackerman, 621 W. Second St., Alliance, says: "I know Doan's Kidney Pills are a wonderful medicine, as they have always relieved any kidney disorders I have had. When my kidneys have been disordered, I have suffered from a dull, heavy pain across my back that seemed to pull me down. At night I couldn't rest because of the steady aching and during the day I would feel tired and worn out. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. Doan's Kidney Pills have been the means of relieving all this trouble, so I am glad to recommend them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ackerman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BAPTIST PASTOR RESIGNS

Sunday morning Feb. 2 A. A. Layton, pastor of the Baptist church for the past three years, presented his resignation, the same to take effect April 1.

His work has shown a permanent growth, 101 members having been added, and 58 by baptism. The benevolences have grown from $92 to $250 per year. $200 was added to the pastor's salary the past year, and recently members of the church gave $2,000 to the Grand Island college campaign. This does not include much that has been given to Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and the help for the war relief in many ways.

Mr. Layton has no definite plans for the future relative to pastoral work.

F. E. Messersmith and wife have a baby girl.

Mrs. Ames Rhein left Tuesday night to go to South Dakota, where she will join her husband. They will farm there next year.

Miss Maud Nason who is teaching at Antioch was called home the last of the week by the death of her grandmother Mrs. Griffith.

Rev. W. A. Bowden of Cripple Creek, Colo., has gone to take up the work at Fairview and Marple.

The month of January was the biggest month, in the collection of fines, during the past four years, during which time Police Magistrate Roberts has held office. Total collections of fines and costs amounted to $600, most of this coming from violations of the liquor law.

Willis Jones, colored Burlington train porter, was fined $200 and costs Saturday for possessing and selling intoxicating liquors. Jones, according to the evidence, was the porter on train number forty-two coming down Friday night. Three colored men on the smoker expressed the desire for a drink. Jones produced a quart which he sold to them for eight dollars. One of the colored men took the lion's share and drank about four dollars' worth. He got drunk, was arrested and squealed on Jones.

Edwin Hall was fined ten dollars and costs on Saturday for being drunk, by Police Magistrate Roberts. William Powell was fined ten dollars and costs on Monday on the same charge.

D. H. Rawson of Omaha, general manager of the American Railway Express, is in the city today on business. Alliance is now an important point in the express business, since district headquarters were established in the city.

T. S. Foster, a returned soldier, formerly agent for the American Railway Express company at Casper, has been appointed route agent for the company with headquarters at Alliance.

Denver Market Declines

Denver.—The potato market showed a downward tendency last week, although the aggregate reduction of prices from the previous week is small. Supplies were liberal from the first, 64 cars arriving Monday and Tuesday, but the demand has been sufficient to avoid congestion and the mild weather has permitted prompt movement on the part of the railroads.

Sales early in the week were made direct to retailers in sacks as follows: Greeley whites, No. 1, $1.80 and 2.00; No. 2, $1.65; Western Slope, Idaho whites, No. 1, mostly $2; Burbanks $2.40 and 2.50.
