Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., April 29, 1919.—Monday's run of cattle was 7,500 head, and one of the sharpest breaks for some time was felt on the heavy grades of beef steers, which were notably around 50c lower than Friday, and trading was very dull and the bulk of the supplies in first hands at the noon hour. Hogs Mostly 15c Lower. A rather light run of 127 loads of hogs, of 8,800 head, arrived Monday and trade was slow in starting as the shipper demand was not very broad and the bulk of sales were 10@20c lower to both shippers and packers, averaging right up 15c lower than Saturday. Bulk ranged from $20.15@23.40, with top for choice heavies at $23.70.

Sheep Steady to 25c Off. Early trade was very dull, and while a few lambs sold steady out of a run of 12,000 head, bulk of the supply was weak to a quarter lower. Bulk of the lambs were selling from $18.50@18.75, CFF; ewes sold at $12.00, a quarter lower, and wooled supply was very light.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
