Fakir Magic Fools the Eye

It's amusing to see a fakir take a pole and line, and hook a fish out of the air; but you don't buy that kind of fish.

Yet some buy tires with just as much sleight of hand in them, tires which look all right, and act all wrong.

To safeguard against mere appearances, look for the Goodrich name and trademark on tires.

Goodrich Tires with their burly, full-rounded bodies, and thick SAFETY TREADS, extra wide to fortify the sidewall against rut grinding

Look the sturdy, lasting tires they are.

Goodrich's name an trade-mark on them stand responsible for their service in action.

They guarantee those tires will return full value for your money by proving their service value to you on your car, on the road.

Don't fail to hear Capt. Miller.

Col. E. T. Westervelt, one of the real pioneers of western Nebraska newspaperdom spent Wednesday in Alliance. Mr. Westervelt at one time served Scotts Bluff county as sheriff and tells some interesting tales of his experience as such. His favorite is that of a fellow who would regularly break jail at night, climbing through the chimney and return after spending a couple of hours with his fair friend. This office is glad to acknowledge a call.

DROVE TEAM OF OXEN TO CHICAGO

At Age Of 74, Farmer Can Do As Much Work As 20 Year Old Boy —Praises Tanlac

"Well, sir, five years before I started taking Tanlac my troubles made me quit work I started taking Tanlac work, but now I feel so good I believe I could whirl in and sow as much oats as I did when I was a young man of twenty," declared George Heinz, Sr., who lives three miles west of Peoria, Ill. on R. F. D. route No. 1, a few days ago. Mr. Heinz has lived on his farm for fifty years and is well and favorably known to a great many persons in that vicinity.

"When my wife and I first settled here," continued Mr. Heinz, "Peoria was just a small village and when we would have anything they didn't keep in town I'd just hook up a team of oxen and go to Chicago, because we didn't have any railroad to Chicago in those days. I worked pretty hard on the farm up till the time I am telling you about when stomach trouble knocked me out and I had rheumatism in my knee so bad my wife would put hot poultices on it to try and rid me of the pain. My stomach got in such bad shape that I couldn't take anything but liquids or soft things to eat and I tell you I got mighty tired eating that sort of stuff but I did it to keep from suffering."

"If I'd so much as eat meat or potatoes my stomach would cramp me nearly to death, and I would bloat up and sometimes it would be hours before I'd get any ease from the pain. Of course, I felt like maybe my age had some'ing to do with my bad stomach and rheumatism, as I'm seventy four now, but I had always been strong and hearty and I just hated to give up hope. I took all sorts of medicine but nothing seemed to do me any good at all and I was right on the point of giving up when I heard what Tanlac had done for people in Peoria and surrounding towns. I know a lot of people about here and some of them told me I ought to take it. I was in a pretty bad shape sure enough but after all I had heard about Tanlac I thought I'd take just one more chance and so I bought a bottle.

"Well sir, that first bottle I took made me sleep better and kept my stomach from hurting me when I ate and seemed to put more life into me than I had had for a long time. I could tell right away that it was doing the work for me and I had the boy get three more bottles and they did me so much good I just couldn't help but go out and do a little work around the place and I began to eat just like I used to and I could sleep like a log and my stomach didn't hurt me at all; in fact, I found that I could eat just anything without being bothered and the rheumatism in my legs eased up so I made up my mind to stick to Tanlac, because I know it's going to rid me of that trouble. I've bought six bottles and shall always bless the day I got that first bottle of Tanlac and I want all my friends to know what it has done for me and they know I'm not the sort to put my name back of anything that isn't just right."

Tanlac is sold in Alliance by F. E. Holsten, in Hemingford by Hemingford Merc. Co., and in Hoffland by Mallery Grocery Co.

Aleppo an Ancient City.
In the center of the older section of Aleppo stands the ancient citadel—a deep moat encircling it. The great mosque is on the site of the tomb of Zacharias, the father of John the Baptist. If alleged Egyptian mummies can be accepted as an authority, the first settlement dates back close to 2,000 years B. C. The city at one time had a trade connection with Venice as well as with Bagdad, and its name and importance became famed throughout Christendom.
