T. W. Patton of Ellsworth visited in Alliance the first of the week.

Mrs. P. N. Chapin and children leave Saturday for an extended visit in the eastern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Connors returned to Alliance Sunday after a months honeymoon trip in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sickles of Minatare are spending a few days visiting at the E. C. Drake home.

Miss Esta Smith, who has been visiting here for several weeks, left Sunday for her home in Lincoln.

Miss Rosina Merk leaves Thursday evening for a few days visit in Hot Springs.

Clarence Levere, just home from France, is employed at King's Corner in the capacity of chef.

Mrs. C. A. Dow and daughters Verna and Vivian leave this week for a few months visit with relatives in Iowa.

Claude Forst, formerly of Alliance but who now makes his home at Ravenna, is spending a few days here.

Mrs. Edith Worthington, of the freight house force, is confined to her home this week on account of an attack of tonsillitis.

There will be held for the Alliance post office on June 14th, an examination for Clerk-Carrier. Further information may be obtained from the local secretary.

Miss Jessie Evert left the first of the week for her home at Mullen for a visit of two weeks. Rumor has it that ere she return wedding bells will ring.

Al Seifert, the cigar man, is suffering a bad attack of rheumatism. The affliction has centered in the left knee of Mr. Seifert and at times it is next to impossible for him to get around. To make things interesting his assistant at the cigar store is confined to his home with the smallpox.

Mrs. P. N. Chapin entertained in honor of her mother Mrs. W. W. Kemp of Denver Thursday afternoon. A dainty two course lunch was served. The guest list included the Mesdames W. W. Norton, James Hunter, E. C. Barker, W. A. Bennett, F. E. Shreve, E. Miller, Oscar O'Bannon, Campbell, McCorkel, W. R. Harper, and Phelps.

The local recruiting office has been notified that in the near future the War Department will send out Victory Buttons to all Recruiting Offices to be distributed to ex-soldiers on presentation of their discharges. As soon as these buttons are received by the Recruiting Office at Alliance notice will be given through the local papers.

John King, who just received his discharge from the army arrived in Alliance Tuesday morning for a short visit with his father, Wm. King and other friends, before going to the ranch on the river. John was in the quartermaster's department and stationed at Fort Logan, near Denver.

King's Corner will be one of the cool places of the town when the new suction fans have been installed and other improvements which are contemplated made. The large draw fans will be used to take the foul air and heat from the building while the others will keep the fresh supply astir.

George D. Darling arrived home yesterday morning from Long Beach, California, where he had spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. E. P. Beck. Mr. Darling says the return trip was the dirtiest trip he had ever made and that throughout the entire journey it was hot and dusty. He reports the folks at Long Beach as getting along nicely.

M. Spangler, machinist at the Burlington shops in this city, together with his family will leave shortly for the east coast on a three months' vacation trip. Mr. Spangler has been with the road for twenty-two years and feels that his vacation has been well earned. The trip will be made overland and will include a short stop at the nation's capital, Washington, D. C.

The Alliance Volunteer Fire Department is planning some improvements at the Armory. Electric fans, additional roof ventilation and suction fans will be included in the program which is to convert the building into the coolest and best ventilated dance hall in the county. The Saturday night dances given by the department are still in popular favor and good crowds are in attendance each night.

The Glen Ellison recital is to be given at the M. E. Church in this city this evening. This famous soloist will sing in direct tone test with the New Edison phonograph. The recital is being given by George D. Darling and admission is by card only.

Samuel Senasu discharged soldier from Benicio Arsenal, California, dropped into the local recruiting office Tuesday and reenlisted for three years for service with the American Expeditionary Forces—in France and Germany. Having spent several months and about $500 of his savings since his discharge trying to establish himself in a lucrative position or a small business, found that on account of the present condition of affairs that he was much better off in the army at $30 a month with board, clothing, medical and dental attendance, etc., than he was on the outside at a salary of $100 a month. The very fact that the $30 cash and allowances paid the enlisted man by the Government is straight time—12 months in the year—during sickness or furlough—proved to him that he could not afford to stay out of the army, during the present existing conditions at least. He states that he has been exceedingly lonesome, in fact hungry for his former comrades ever since he was discharged and will indeed be glad when he is once more back in the barracks. While he was always looking forward to the day of his discharge and was happy the day it was handed him he has not been satisfied since. Mr. Henscu enlisted in the Regular Army in June, 1917 and was discharged in February, 1919. He has recently been employed here by the Burlington as Timekeeper.

Bob Driscoll and family were in from their ranch near Arvada Saturday. Mr. Driscoll, who has been employed by the C. B. & Q. at this place for a number of years is asking for a transfer to Sheridan, Wyoming that he may be nearer the ranch.

Oscar O'Bannon has workmen on the job and has commenced the construction work for a splendid new home. When completed the house will cost about $10,000 it is claimed and will be one of the finest in the western half of Nebraska.
