

GOVERNMENT LAND IS OPENED FOR ENTRY

The Alliance land office has issued a notice stating that the Department of the Interior has issued an order releasing from the withdrawal under the reclamation law, 80 acres of land located eleven miles north and one mile west of Scottsbluff, in Southern Sioux County, described as follows: The S 1/4 SE 1/4 of Section 28 in Township 24, North of Range 55, West of the 6th P. M. and this tract will be subject to homestead entry June 23, 1919, at 9 o'clock A. M. standard time. "At least the war has taught us economy," remarked ex-Secretary McAdoo recently. "I call to mind a friend of mine who works in New York but lives in Brooklyn. He had been lecturing his wife on the gentle art of saving, and she, after deep pondering, advanced a really bright idea. Quite often the husband was not able to get home in time for dinner at night. He told his wife that he would phone her every day as to whether he could leave the office or not. Mrs. Benson was of a very thrifty disposition, and the following was her solution of the problem: 'Sam, if you find that you can't be home for dinner, phone me at exactly 6 o'clock. If the telephone rings at that hour I'll know it is you and that you are not coming for dinner. I won't answer it, and you'll get your nickel back.'"

The teacher was trying to illustrate the outcome of laziness and idleness. He drew a terrible picture of the habitual loafer, the man who hates work, and his ultimate fate. "Now, Charlie," he continued to a little boy who had been looking out of the window, and whose mind was far from the lesson of the hour, "tell me who is the wretched, miserable individual who gets clothes, food and lodging, and gives nothing in return?" Charlie's face glowed. "Please, sir," he replied, "the baby."

"The colored man, during the war, has most certainly proven his gratitude for the freedom our civil war gave him," remarked General Crowder speaking of the darkies who responded to the draft. "And maybe Mandy wasn't so far wrong after all. Mandy and Selah, both very fat and very black, were riding down town in a street-car and conversing in loud tones across the aisle about the progress of the war. Mandy was the oracle of the occasion, and spoke her convictions in no uncertain tone: 'Selah, Ah done tole yuh this wah gwine to be a wonderful ting fob us col'd folks. De las' wah done make us free, didn't it? An' dis wah suah gwine to make us all ladies and gemmen.'"

Appropos of Zeebrugge, Captain Beeman told this story in one of his addresses during his Pennsylvania campaign for a better understanding between Britain and America. A Yank and a Tommy thrown together in France were vying each other in telling tall stories. "I saw 500 Germans drowned in Champagne," said the American. "That's nothing," Tommy answered. "At Zeebrugge there were three German submarines sunk in port."
