Mrs. W. B. Wilson is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Adams. Mrs. Wilson leaves Thursday to meet her husband who is in Wyoming.

Miss Tressa Morrow entertained Saturday evening at dinner for the Misses Dorothy Whitehead and Margaret Bailey who are the guests of Miss Margaret Harris.

Dwight L. Farrough of Long Lake, Nebraska, is visiting in Alliance this week. This office is pleased to acknowledge a very pleasant call by Mr. Farrough while in this city.

There will be held a county convention of the W. C. T. U. at the Baptist church in this city on Monday, September 1st. Watch for the program next week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. DuBuque were passengers to Scottsbluffs Wednesday. Mr. DuBuque's car was at that place and the trip was made to drive it to Alliance.

Miss Margaret Harris delightfully entertained at six o'clock dinner fourteen guests Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Margaret Bailey of Illinois, who is visiting with Alliance friends this week. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

A swimming party was given at Broncho Sunday. Those present were the Misses Dorothy Fricke, Leila Newhirter, Francis Schott, Janas Adams, Flora Spencer, Tressa Looney, Verna Dow, Inez Hagan, Frances Grassman, Josephine Wilson.

Mrs. Glen Miller and two children of North Platte and Miss Edna McLean of the same place are visiting at the Thos. Katen home in this city this week. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Katen.

Alliance and Box Butte county has been experiencing some very hazy weather the last few days, due to the pall of smoke which comes down from the huge forest fires of Wyoming, Montana and Idaho.

F. M. Broome, editor and publisher of the Antioch News, was a business visitor in Alliance on Wednesday of this week. He expresses an optimistic view over the potato situation and looks for all the plants to be in operation within a short time.

P. D. Gleason, manager of the Nebraska Telephone Company's branch at this place, had business which called him to Potten, Sidney and other towns along the Union Pacific this week. At Potten, Mr. Gleason effected a transfer made necessary by a change of managers.

Arthur E. Clark, former publisher of the Gordon Journal, has commenced the publication of a magazine at Scottsbluff, to be called the "Rancher and Farmer". He is meeting with success from the start and believes his field has great promise.

The average yield of Box Butte county crops is excellent this year. D. W. Kenner, farming north of Hemingford, recently threshed his oat crop. He received a yield of 717 bushels from 22 acres of crop, an average of more than 32 1/2 bushels per acre.

Ex-Mayor of Alliance W. E. Rousey, now of Hill City, South Dakota, and daughter, visited at the John McDonald home in this city the first of the week. Mr. Rousey is now engaged in the farming business and says the change has been very beneficial to his health.

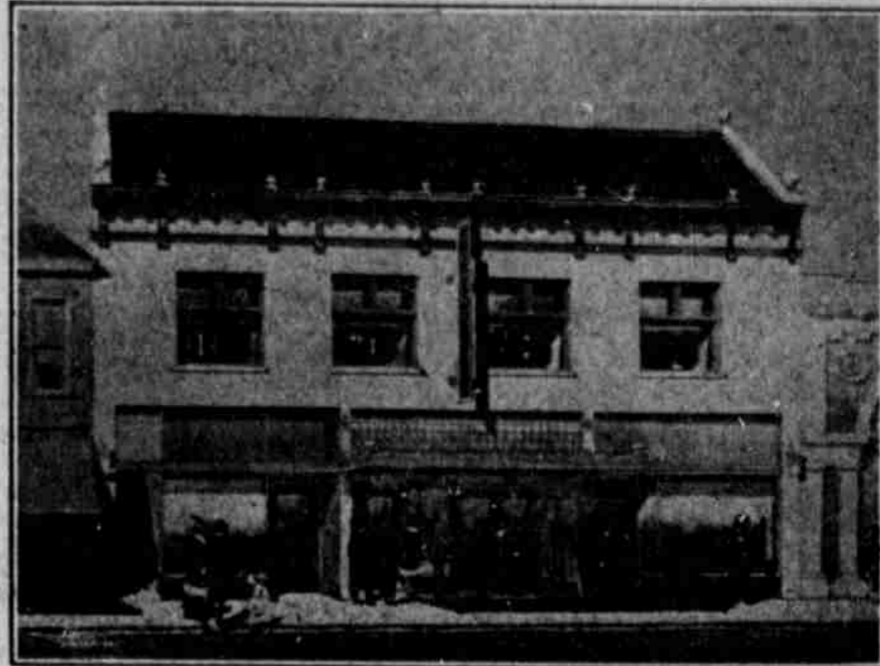

Harold S. Thomas, one of the Thomas boys who recently arrived in Alliance to make his home and who is employed at the office of the Thomas-Bald Investment Company, made a trip Saturday afternoon to Gordon with Grant Hale. They returned Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Thomas and the children, to make their home here.

Miss Leona Shreve, the efficient bookkeeper at The Herald office is enjoying her vacation this week. Sunday Miss Shreve left for Broken Bow, where the family lived prior to coming to Alliance, for a visit with old time friends and relatives and to attend the home-coming and fair being held at that place this week. Miss Louise Fricke is taking her place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Enyder and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hall returned from a week's outing trip through the Black Hills country. They had a fine time while away and when Harold got back he proclaimed his belief that there are no finer places than the Black Hills during the summer months. They made the trip via auto.

Rev. A. J. Kearns, of the Presbyterian church wandered into the office Saturday evening. Just as we were preparing to get out a search and seizure warrant to ascertain his whereabouts, with one of those "smiles that won't come off" spread over the entire area of his face and explained that he had been sticking close to home helping to care for a fine, new baby boy Archibald Gordon, that had arrived at their home early Saturday to take up its abode with them. Congratulations, reverend. The mother and child are getting along nicely—the father may recover, but we seriously question his ever looking the same again.

Night Marshal and Mrs. Nova Taylor are entertaining a strange boy at their home in this city since last Thursday. The little fellow is a "dandy" according to the proud father, who insists that already he has shown considerable talent as a detector of law-breakers and that if this ability is evident much longer he will be placed on the "boozie squad" to assist in bringing the elusive bootleggers to time. All concerned are doing very well.
