

SOCIETY

E. C. Drake made a business trip Monday to Hyannis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnett motored Sunday to Scottsbluff.

Jarvis Reed of Scottsbluff spent Sunday visiting Alliance friends.

Miss Grace Beal of Broken Bow spent Monday in Alliance on business.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ostenberg spent the week end visiting in Alliance.

Jack Luttrell is enjoying a visit from his brother, William, of Edgemont, S. D.

Mrs. S. C. La Mon returned Monday from a three months' visit to Paola, Kas.

Mrs. Will Beans and Mrs. Simmons of Lakeside were shopping Tuesday in Alliance.

Miss Myrtle Queen spent the first of the week visiting with relatives in Scottsbluff.

Mrs. Wilkinson and daughter, Miss Dossa, are planning to spend the week in Omaha.

Mrs. George Davis spent Tuesday in Hyannis attending to business for the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Claude McDonald left Monday night for Chicago in the interest of the Red Cross.

Mrs. William Nieman and daughter, Gretchen, are spending the week visiting in Scottsbluff.

Miss Edna Bowman left Monday for Scottsbluff, where she will visit with Mrs. William Ostenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fleming and daughter, Isabelle, went to Denver Sunday night for a few days' shopping.

The Misses Wilkinson, Morrow, Soper and Whitney of the city schools will attend the state teachers' convention in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson and family left Saturday for an extended visit with relatives and friends at Ontario, Canada.

Miss Miller, who is attending the commercial department of the St. Agnes academy in Alliance, visited her parents over Sunday in Torrington, Wyo.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church gave a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Florence Atz, 515 Sweetwater avenue, on Friday evening, October 31.

About thirty-five young people met at the church and formed a ghost parade, led by the old witch and black cat, marching to the home, where they were pleasantly entertained by a novel program which was well planned by the social committee. The house was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Light refreshments of punch, wafers and mints were served and the guests departed at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Fletcher entertained at a duck dinner on Monday evening at their home, 539 West Third street, the Misses Sylvia De Moss, Marydelle Fletcher, Lella Cutts and the Messers, Dick Strong and Robert Atz.

The Misses Janet and Mable Grassman entertained Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Marian Grebe. The evening was spent informally. The house was decorated in yellow and white and a dainty two-course luncheon was served. The guests were the Misses Marian Grebe, Ruth Morris, Hazel Bennett, Helen Schott, Rosina Merk, La Rhea Lunn, Mary Wilson, Ethel Graham, Edna Bowman, Florence Campbell, Leona Shreve and Mrs. Carl Thomas.

The Misses Josephine Acheson and Louise Cogswell entertained at a Halloween party on Friday evening about twenty of their small friends. The early part of the evening was spent at the Cogswell home, which was appropriately decorated with black cats, witches, pumpkins and jack-o'-lanterns. Halloween games were enjoyed until a late hour when the party left for the Acheson home, where refreshments were served.

Miss Ruth Wilson entertained Friday evening a number of her friends at a Halloween party. The house was decorated with appropriate Halloween decorations. Dainty refreshments were served.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The First Baptist church always has a program for everybody. The services are filled with good music and a discussion of topics that are before us today. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock you are invited to hear the sermon, "The Ruling Passion." At 7:30 p. m. the subject will be, "The Great Mother," and interpretation of the work of the Red Cross.

The Sunday school meets at 10 a. m.

Morning worship at 11 o'clock.

Young people's meetings at 6:30 p. m.

Evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

Remember you are always welcome at the "home-like church," and your friends are invited to come with you.

J. ORIN GOULD, Minister.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Evangelist Knapp is preaching some strong sermons. Many are the expressions of appreciation concerning his work and also that of Mrs. Knapp. This meeting is free from objectionable features such as sensationalism. It is desired that the meetings will strengthen faith, enlarge vision and win souls to Christ. Mr. Knapp is doing all of this. The sermon subjects for the following week, beginning Sunday mornings, are:

Sunday morning—"The Unfinished Task."

Sunday afternoon—"Marks of Discipleship."

Sunday evening—"At the Bar of God."

Monday evening—"New Testament Conversion."

Tuesday evening—"The Ark of the Type of the Church."

Wednesday evening—"A Bargain Counter."

Thursday evening—"The Judas Tree."

Friday evening—"Satan's Cradle."

Saturday evening—"A Quartet of Fools."

We are expecting two hundred and one in the Bible school at 10 o'clock. There will be fifty in the Christian Endeavor prayer meetings at 6:30 o'clock.

Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

FAIRVIEW M. E. CHURCH

We will be glad to have as many as possible out to both services on Sunday. This will be the pastor's last Sunday on the work.

In the morning he will use for a subject, "The Last Mile of the Way," and in the evening, "The Good Fight—the Finished Course."

And don't forget, Sunday school at 10 a. m.

You are welcome.

WILLIAM A. BOWDEN, Pastor.

—Lloyd C. Thomas, county chairman of Box Butte county for the Roosevelt Memorial association, has received notice from John W. Towle, state campaign director, that certificates will be furnished every school room which contributes to the Roosevelt memorial fund. The amount desired from scholars is not large. In many places each scholar is giving five or ten cents to the fund. Box Butte county still has additional funds to raise to complete her quota.

W. R. Harper Dept. Store

We have just received another shipment of wool dresses, come in at your first convenience and look over the tailored models in Serges and Tricotines. You will find all colors, the popular navy blue predominating. Sale price from $21.50 to $67.50

$125.00 Duvetyn Suits, brown and navy, Sale Price - - - - - $83.50

$100.00 Tricotine Suits, browns and navy, Sale Price - - - - - $65.00

$ 85.00 Tricotine Suits, all colors, Sale Price - - - - - $55.00

$ 65.00 Checkered Velour Suits, all colors, Sale Price - - - - - $42.50

Nice selection of Serges and Orford Cloths, Sale Price, from - - - - - $32.50 to $40.00

$125.00 Baffin Seal Coats—Sale Price - - - - - $83.50

$ 45.00 Silvertones, all colors—Sale Price - - - - - $30.00

$ 90.00 Salts Plush Coats—Sale Price - - - - - $57.50

$ 75.00 Wool Velours, Bolivias, Chamelion Corbs—Sale Price - - - - - $50.00

W. R. HARPER ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS

Department Store

Clean-Up Sale of Wooltex and Iris Coats

at prices lower than others have quoted and also lower than most manufacturers are asking for the same garment now.

This sale is of vast importance to the trade of Alliance and vicinity as it brings to them all the new fabrics in the latest models at prices that have not been anticipated this year.

A Wool Diagonal Mixed - - - - - $18.75

A Wool in Gray - - - - - $21.40

A short Black Plush - - - - - $28.15

A Melter in Navy - - - - - $24.40

A Heatherstone in Brown - - - - - $28.15

Showing an assortment in Wool Velours and Black Plush
A Coat in Burgundy, for - - - - - $31.90

Taupe Coat for - - - - - $28.90

A Brown Beauty, for - - - - - $35.60

A Plum Coral at - - - - - $37.50

Full length Black Plush for - - - - - $35.00

Also Coats up to $175.00

HIGHLAND-HOLLOWAY CO.