brought out a good congregation. By actual count, 180 were present. In a short time the girls will give a similar program and it waits to see whether they will bring out as many people as the boys did.

Our rally day services Sunday morning were well attended, but not quite as many were present as the Sunday before. We had 194. It was reported Sunday morning that the attendance was 181, but it was found later that one primary class had not been counted, which accordingly brought up the figures. The women's Bible class won the banner.

A program of unusual interest will be given next Sunday night. It is a song service entitled "Nearer My God to Thee," illustrated with beautifully colored stereopticon slides.

It gives the story of this most beautiful of hymns, and in connection with it, a number of illustrated songs will be given.

MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

There never was a time when a supply of real religious faith was needed as badly as right now.—Buckshot.
