A daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. George J. Hand on Monday morning of this week. The little miss has not been given a name as yet. The doctor says that he hasn't been able to find one that is good enough.

O'Bannon Bros. will buy all kinds of cow and horse hides, both green and salted. Bring them in. It's the simplest way, and much the best. You get the highest price for your hides without the inconvenience of making the freight shipment.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a dinner and supper of chicken, rolls, mashed potatoes, baked beans, salad and pickles, pie, cake and peaches for 75 cents Saturday, December 6, at the armory.

The Newberry Hardware company this week got one order from a nearby city which shows other places are not so fortunate as Alliance. A firm in Scottsbluff sent them an order for forty oil heaters. Scottsbluff is face to face, not with a coal shortage, but with a coal famine. Committees there have been appointed to arrange for cutting wood for fuel, and the Star-Herald reports that while everybody sees the need for something to burn, it's difficult work to find folks willing to swing an axe.

L. D. Blair of this city recently sold the Antloch bakery, which he has been conducting for the past two years, and has as yet made no plans for the future. He expects some time before long to engage in business, but just what kind and where have not been determined. Mr. Blair is one of the old settlers of Box Butte county. In the days before there was a single house in the city he lived in a tent near the present site.

The Evangelical Lutheran church at the corner of Yellowstone and Seventh streets will have service next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Sunday school will be held immediately after the service. Here's a chance to attend a service, if you are too busy on Sunday morning. Is it your custom to make visits on Sunday afternoon? Never forget your church; she is your best friend, and will always welcome you. Sermon text: Luke 17:20-30. F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.
