 "Judea Fair," male quartet.
 Anthem, "And There Were Shepherds," choir.
 Offertory, organ and piano.
 Benediction.
 Postlude, orchestra.
 There will be a baptismal service at the church next Sunday morning. Any persons desiring may be baptized at this time.
 The local papers speak elsewhere of the action of the quarterly conference last Sunday night in launching the new church enterprise on a larger scale than before. This time the movement is inaugurated by the members of the board of trustees, and the first few subscriptions are so generous as to insure its success. A building committee of five men were elected: R. M. Hampton, W. W. Norton, J. A. Hunter, E. T. Kibble and W. R. Pate.
 Sunday morning the choir will render several special selections of Christmas music. In the evening a musical program will be given by the primary department, the junior chorus and the choir. The program is printed above.
 The loose offering both Sunday morning and evening will be used to pay for new song books. The church was almost without books either for Sunday school or regular worship, and the music committee authorized the purchase of 100 new Sunday school books and fifty hymnals. The members and friends of the church are asked to bring a liberal offering for this song book fund next Sunday.
 MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

Church of Christ
 We were happy at the splendid audiences last Lord's day. In spite of the cold weather many were present to greet us after our release from quarantine. We expect another great day next Sunday. The morning sermon subject is: "Bethlehem's Announcement." At the evening service a Christmas program will be given. This program consists of some beautiful exercises and music. The evening offering will be devoted to ministerial relief.
 The Bible school is ready to welcome you at 10 o'clock. Classes for all ages will edify you. The annual meeting of the church will be held on Wednesday evening, December 31. Reports will be given by every department of the work. You will be interested in hearing these.
 It is our desire to make every service helpful and of the best. The gospel is preached in its simplicity. We believe that the Bible is the word of God and that the gospel is the power unto salvation.
 Come to the church with a message and a welcome.
 STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

First Baptist Church
 The First Baptist church will hold appropriate Christmas exercises next Sunday morning and evening. In the morning the pastor will speak on the subject, "The Wise Men From the East." In the evening a musical program will be given. These services have been carefully prepared for the occasion, and the public is invited to have a part in them. Remember the church on the corner of Laramie avenue and Seventh streets is always open to strangers, and that it is the "Home-like Church." Bring your friends and enjoy the greatest day in the history of the world.
 J. ORRIN GOULD, Minister.
 The following musical program will be given at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening:
 "Joy to the World," Handel; the congregation.
 Prayer.
 The Christmas story, the pastor.
 "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," Willis; chorus choir.
 "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," Mendelssohn; Elsie Simpson.
 "Silent Night, Holy Night," Gruber; ladies' quartet.
 "The Angel Song," Lorenz; ladies' chorus.
 "The Endless Day," Johnson; Mrs. Charles H. Fuller.
 "Keep Love's Watchfires Burning," Lorenz; chorus choir.
 Instrumental duet, selected; Horace and Ethel Fuller.
 "Just Outside the Door," Ackley; Charles H. Fuller, J. Orrin Gould.
 "The Children's Hosanna," Fears; Mrs. T. A. Cross.
 "The Heavenly Chorus," Lange; Elsie Simpson, Mrs. C. H. Fuller.
 "All Hail the Power," Holden; congregation.

A White Xmas

What joyful shouts it brings. How exciting every hill—if a "feller" has a Bob Sled. And when the pond is frozen solid—could any mortal boy ask for more? Why, certainly. He would ask "dad" to drop in here and buy him a pair of Hockey Skates.

And "dad" would come in and buy them, because he knows sledding and skating make little boys healthy and strong.

Don't deny your boy one moment of Winter's exhilarating sports. Come in now and buy both "Bob" and Skates. It will be a delightful surprise for him when the hill is ready for coasters, or the skating pond solid enough to try out the sharp, keen edge of his new skates.

Sleds in any number of good, well built models, ideal for coasting, priced
