

Mrs. T. J. Threhold is visiting in Hemingford this week with Mrs. Ira Phillips. Mrs. Phillips was formerly May Eneyart.

—Rought Dry, 8c per pound. Alliance Steam Laundry.

Mrs. E. G. McCue and daughter, Mrs. Harry Safford, of Melbeta, came Friday for a visit with Charles Safford and mother, Mrs. Sadie Safford. While here they will transact some business for the local ladies' aid.

Dr. Harry Smith, formerly of Alliance but now located in North Platte, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. Charles Schleve of Hot Springs, S. D., is visiting at the home of her brother, C. H. Frederick.

Miss Meta Koester of the county attorney's office is quite ill.

For Sale—A big lumber wagon and a light spring wagon. Cheap if taken at once. Write Box 696, Alliance, Neb.

—10p We have a full ream of those big desk blotters that you have been wanting. Herald Office.

—Glasses accurately fitted at reasonable prices. Drake & Drake, Optometrists.

—Desk blotters, typewriter ribbons, second sheets, carbon paper and other office supplies at The Herald office.

—Black double-breasted ulster, extra heavy, for sale, size 42. Call 164 Cleaners & Tailors, 213 Box Butte Ave.

—Souquets are agreeable things to receive, especially if one is alive when they arrive. Another business man—we're going to withhold his name—made us blush again yesterday by telling us that The Herald had improved 100 per cent within the past two months. He said some nice things about several of our departments, and the only thing that kept us from handing him an expensive cigar on the spot was the fact that we keep ours in the safe—the first drawer to the right of the compartment reserved for the check book. Incidentally, this is not the only intimation we have received that The Herald is looking up of late, and any sort of encouragement, from kind words to new subscriptions, is especially welcome in the dull days between Christmas and New Year's. We're not averse to receiving them at other times, either.

—For Sale—One five room house, good condition. Modern except heat. Good location. See Nebraska Land Company.

—G. M. Banks, a Herald subscriber who owns a good sized ranch but is spending the winter in Alliance, made this office a pleasant visit last Saturday. He has sold off about all of his surplus stock and is "playing safe," as he expressed it, having no intention of being caught with a lot of stock on hand and the range covered with snow. Like many another rancher, the wild December weather has had him guessing, and he is undecided whether to buy a lot of sheep, or let well enough alone and do no feeding at all during the winter season.

—Call 160. Rough Dry 8c per lb. Alliance Steam Laundry.

—Rev. J. Orrin Gould returned Thursday from Lincoln, where he attended a meeting of the board of managers of the state Baptist conference. At this meeting, plans were made to submit to the state convention, which will meet in Lincoln February 16, a new constitution which will contain some radical changes. Among these is the plan to do away with the boards having charge of the various church activities, and in their place will be employed an executive secretary, with general charge over all of them. Secretaries will be employed for the various departments, to serve under the direction of the executive secretary. It is believed that the plan will make for greater efficiency and be in line with the latest ideas in church administration. Mr. Gould had the opportunity of twice hearing General Pershing while in Lincoln, and was greatly impressed. At one of these meetings, the audience was composed entirely of ex-service men, and on this occasion the general was perhaps more eloquent than at any other time during his visit in Lincoln.

—Rought Dry, 8c per pound. Alliance Steam Laundry.

METHODIST CHURCH

We neglected to announce in our notes last week that the loose offering for the song book fund was $42.-25 for both services.

Following the plan for the week of prayer for churches, as proposed by the federal council of churches in America, the topic Sunday morning will be "The Church Awakened to Her New Opportunities." The speaker will deal particularly with the greatest opportunity that comes to this local church, namely, winning recruits for the kingdom.

The services during this week of prayer will be union. Monday night it will be at the Methodist, with short addresses by different pastors. Tuesday night at the Presbyterian church with an address by Rev. Mr. Gould. Wednesday night at the Methodist church again, with the address by Rev. Mr. Kearns. Thursday night at the Baptist church, with the address by Rev. Mr. Epler, and Friday night at the Christian church, with an address by the Methodist pastor.

MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

EX-YANKS TO HAVE MEDICAL ATTENTION

The ar department's service and information bureau has undertaken a campaign to inform former service men that all in need of medical or surgical treatment because of illness or injury contracted in the army or navy can enter an army or public health service hospital or local sanitarium, with all expenses paid by the government.

Discharged men should apply to the nearest army hospital or local representative of the public health service for examination or consult Red Cross representatives or state and municipal health officers.

The fair young student at the close of the polytechnic cooking class carefully wrote out a label that read, "Yankee Jam," and pasted it on the jar she had just filled.

"By why Yankee Jam?" asked the teacher.

115-117 West Third Alliance, Nebraska

Dear Friends:

Just a little note of greeting. We hope you passed a pleasant New Year's Day, and that all through this year your life will be as pleasant as it would were you to abide by all the resolutions which you surely made.

We hope that this current year will be the most happy and prosperous you have ever known.

We hope that this year will bring you unexpected joys and pleasures, and that any sorrows which may come will be more than asuaged in accomplishment of content.

We hope that you will profit yourself though judicious living and buying.

That brings us to this greeting. We are constantly and earnestly striving to deserve the trade of the best people in Alliance.

We truly feel that our efforts have made this the place where you can most profitably trade in Alliance.

We hope you will take this seriously, and deal with us all year. We are certain you will be repaid.

Sincerely,
George D. Darling

A Two Cylinder Tractor with Slow-Speed Motor Out-Performs Them All

HART-PARR 30 DEVELOPS 26.5 DRAWBAR HORSEPOWER—BIG OHIO TEST MEETS GROWING DEMAND FOR TRACTOR FIELD TESTS THAT REALLY PROVE SOMETHING

Hart-Parr 30, having such tremendous power for three plows, handles its load very easily, hence without strain, and consequently will have long life.

If tractors were sold by horsepower developed, the Hart-Parr 30 would be worth from one-third to three times more than any other three-plow tractor in the tests.

The Hart-Parr 30 that made this wonderful record at the Ohio tests is now being used by the Agricultural Engineering Department of the Ohio State University.

GREATEST TRACTOR TEST OF ALL TIME Held by Ohio State University, July-August, 1919

Order Now for Winter and Spring Delivery—

The Hart-Parr Factory, the oldest and largest exclusive tractor factory in the world, has been running full time throughout the year, yet orders have kept ahead of production. Order now for Winter or Spring delivery and avoid disappointment.

Farmers' Union Alliance, Nebraska

Many of the old Hart-Parrs that plowed the virgin prairies of the Northwest are still in use today, after 10 to 16 years of service.
