

H. P. Coursey went to Antioch Friday on business.

Al Brown is back on the job again after a layoff due to illness.

Miss Ethel James or the W. Harper department store is ill at her home.

True Miller and his son, Harley, went to Crawford Saturday on business.

Charles Shafer of Scottsbluff was visiting Sunday with his brother, Clarence.

County Attorney Lee Basye has recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Fenner Smith was up from Antioch Saturday attending to some personal affairs.

Earl Mallory has been unable to show up for work this week on account of sickness.

Mr. McLean from Snake Creek, Neb., has been visiting in Alliance the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Zediker have returned from a short visit with relatives at Crawford.

Mrs. Anna Wilson of Edgemont spent Sunday with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Roberts.

Miss Marie Frazer of the Al Wiker household has been sick for several days past with the grippe.

Miss Frances Schafer of Scottsbluff was in Alliance Sunday to attend the K. of C. banquet.

Mrs. Della Mallory has returned from Scottsbluff, where she has been visiting her daughter, Leone.

Mrs. A. J. Mallory has been visiting with her daughter, Leone, who is teaching school in Scottsbluff.

John Warn of Hemingford has been in the city for a couple of days, disposing of several cars of hay.

District Manager McKim for the Beatrice Creamery company is in Alliance the fore part of this week.

Mrs. C. G. Reeves has been sick with the flu for the past week, but was able to be up Tuesday morning.

H. C. Bartow of Fort Pierre, S. D., was in the city the first of the week, but was called away before arranging.

For Sale—One five room house, good condition. Modern except heat. Good location. See Nebraska Land Company.

John Linda has moved to Alliance from Snake Creek, Neb. He expects to be operated upon in a few days for rupture.

Mrs. A. G. Isaacson was taken to the St. Joseph hospital Monday. She underwent an operation Tuesday morning.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Gordon C. Wright of Tryon, Neb., and Miss Teedie K. Montgomery, of Mullen, Neb.

Chris Rohrbach and Miss Bertha Fredricks, both of Alliance, were united in marriage Saturday by Father Manning.

If you want to buy or sell Plymouth Rock, Rhode Island Red or Leghorn cockerels call W. E. Cutts, at the Fairmont Cream Station. 21

See the Kryptok display—the invisible bifocal lens, for both near and far vision in the case in front of Highland-Holloway Co. See Bauman, and See Better. 22

Avis Joder, deputy county clerk, returned to her duties Monday morning after an illness of a week. Margaret Dwyer and Ethel Clary, clerks, were too ill to report for duty Monday.

There will be an Epworth League Valentine social Friday evening at the home of Floyd Donovan, 921 Box Butte avenue. All Epworth League members and friends are invited.

County Treasurer F. W. Irish left the first of the week for Omaha, where he will attend the sessions of the state association of county treasurers. He expects to be out of the city a large part of the week.

Miss Louise Wildy, who is attending school at Boulder, Colo., was the guest Monday of Alliance friends. She was on her way to Scottsbluff, where she expects to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wildy.

Frank A. May, commercial superintendent of the division for the Nebraska Telephone company, and E. K. Haldeman, district commercial manager, are in the city Tuesday to meet with the city council this evening with regard to the granting of the franchise to the telephone company.

Miss Hazel Minor, cler kat the Nebraska Telephone company's local office, received a telegram Monday from her father in Maple Creek, Saskatchewan, Canada, stating that her brother, David, aged seventeen, had died on tonsillitis. The announcement came very suddenly as Miss Minor did not know of her brother's illness. Miss Minor left Tuesday for her home.

When your glasses need changing let me fit you with toric lenses—the glass with a deep curve and better defined vision. B. G. Bauman, O. D. 22

A mission study class has been organized by the Epworth League of the Methodist church, to study the resources, industries, education and evangelism of China, one of the most wonderful countries in the world. There are six lessons in the course, the study of one being taken up each Sunday evening at 6:30, at the Methodist church. All older people, as well as the younger members of the church, are invited to attend each of these meetings.

Charles J. Pflug of Hyannis, manager of the Stock Growers' Lumber and Supply Co., was in Alliance Monday morning on business. It is reported that he purchased a carload of tanks of C. A. Newberry.

Will Carter of Hemingford is very low with pneumonia.

Frank Beal is quarantined with the smallpox. It is said that the disease was probably contracted in Lincoln.

Mrs. Mearl C. Smith left the first of the week for Rushville, where she will spend a few days with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Caldwell.

Get the baby some new soft sole shoes. The Alliance Shoe Store has undoubtedly the neatest, most attractive line being shown in Alliance.

Auditor John Casper, and ex-Auditor R. A. Murray of the Dierks Lumber and Coal company of Kansas City visited Alliance Saturday night and Sunday. Their visit came practically on the twenty-sixth anniversary of F. W. Hargarten's time with the Dierks company.

A get-together social was held at the Episcopal parish house last night.

Superintendent W. R. Pate was released from quarantine Monday morning and has again taken up his duties at the head of the city schools.

Miss Ruth Cone, teacher of the seventh and eighth grades at Emerson school, resumed her duties again Monday morning, after three days' absence on account of sickness.

Ernest Radenbaugh, the new proprietor of the Silver Grill Cafe, was very busy Monday. In addition to his affairs connected with the change of ownership of the cafe, his household goods arrived. Mr. Radenbaugh is fortunate enough to have secured a place to house his family. Mrs. Radenbaugh and the two children will come to Alliance in a week.

The Bridge club meets with Mrs. W. R. Metz next Wednesday.

The Abegg family are under quarantine on account of the flu.

The Wiker Music House delivered a player piano Sunday to F. D. Cody, who lives north of Lakeside.

Miss Rose Hublitz is spending a few days in the city at the home of her parents. She will return the first of the month to Hemingford, where she is employed in the city schools.

Arthur M. Tabar and Miss Della M. Nichols, both of Alliance vicinity, were united in marriage at 1 p. m. today at the home of Rev. A. J. Kearns, pastor of the Presbyterian church who performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Tabar will make their home on the Kilpatrick ranch twenty-two miles east of Alliance.

A CARLOAD OF TIRES FOR COURSEY & MILLER

Coursey & Miller, distributors for western Nebraska and southwestern South Dakota, received a carload of Firestone tires the first of the week, sizes and was valued at over $50,000. This is by far the largest shipment of tires ever received in Alliance, or by any western distributor. The car was billed direct from Akron, O.

The entire carload was sold before it reached the city. Coursey & Miller plan to distribute $200,000 worth of tires this year, and may exceed the mark they have set for themselves. Two salesmen, R. C. Moore and J. W. Calvers, are on the road. The Alliance firm, which has been operating under the Omaha branch, was transferred February 1 to the Denver branch, which is another step toward rendering better service. Cheyenne and Kimball counties have been added to their territory.

Miss Lois Wildy, daughter of Calvin J. Wildy, formerly of this county, was in Alliance the first of the week on her way to Scottsbluff, where she will assist in the American State bank during the influenza epidemic. Mr. Wildy, who was formerly president of the First National bank at Hemingford, but who recently sold out his interests there and established in the American State bank at Scottsbluff, is confined to his home. Mr. Wildy's family and home are at Boulder, Col., where his family have been attending the University of Colorado.

One Minute Store Talk

"You folks seem never to tire of being on the job. Where in the world do you get all this fine, new clothing? I've bought Spring clothes here every February for several years, and every year I see vastly greater stocks. Again this year you've outdone your past displays," commented a customer.

AS HERETOFORE HARPER'S HAVE THE GOODS.

W. R. HARPER, Prop.

Harper's

W. R. HARPER, Prop.

SHOP EARLY—STORE CLOSSES AT 6:00 P. M.—SATURDAY 9:00 P. M.

Introducing Spring Styles

From World's Foremost Clothes Makers

Presenting for your inspection a remarkably interesting advance spring exhibit—a showing so vast and varied that the men and young men of the Middle West will realize that 1920 sees the dawn of even more efficient clothes service at this big store than ever heretofore.

Masterpieces of HAND-TAILORING—the finest Spring clothes made are here, the production of the premier tailoring talent of the world.

More celebrated designers contribute to our Spring showing than you'll find in any other clothes store in Nebraska—Models for every build, every style preference.

Fabric and color ranges seemingly without end—New tans, browns, blues, olive shades in a variety of distinguished effects entirely unprecedented.

New Spring Suits and Top Coats

$25 to $50

THE HOUSE OF STEIN BLOCH CLOTHES STYLE PLUS BRANDEGEE KINCAID

and a host of others — Internationally famous for Quality

CLEARING WINTER CLOTHES

BROKEN LINES OF MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S

Fancy O'coats and Suits

at 20% OFF

100 OVERCOATS—Heavy Ulsters, Double-breasted, Full Belt, Half Belt or Standard Storm Coats. Sizes 35 to 48, but a majority of the stock consists of young men's sizes 35 to 38.

ULSTERETTES—Full Belt, Belt Back, Form-fitting and Double-breasted English models. Young men's styles. Sizes range 32 to 42. A real opportunity for the smart dresser. Don't miss it!

200 MEN'S SUITS—Broken lines—a preponderance of young men's and younger young men's, sizes 32 to 38—a few larger sizes. On sale Middle section.

CHOOSE WEDNESDAY AS FOLLOWS—

$20.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$16.00	$45.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$36.00
$25.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$20.00	$50.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$40.00
$30.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$24.00	$60.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$48.00
$35.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$28.00	$65.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$52.00
$40.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$32.00	$75.00 Overcoats and Suits at.....	$60.00

BOY'S O'COATS FINAL CLEARANCE OF BOYS' FANCY OVERCOATS, WIDE SELECTION OF BELTED AND BELT-BACK MODELS and All Wanted Colors 20% OFF

Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Clothing—Entire Middle Section

W. R. Harper Department Store

SEE OUR WINDOWS TODAY

BIG STORE

ALLIANCE, NEB.

COMPARE OUR VALUES ALWAYS