ROCKEY & SON SELL BUSINESS

Rockey & Son sold their business, including buildings and everything, to a company which will be known as the Hemingford Implement and Investment company.

M. L. Brown is president, George N. Puckett, secretary and treasurer, and Arthur Muller, vice president.

They also have nine quarter sections of land which they will break and farm this year.

Professor N. N. Gaines, lecturer for the extension service, of the state university agriculture department gave his lecture in the Methodist church Monday night to a large congregation and it was highly appreciated by all. He goes from here to Bridgeport and Scottsbluff.

The Misses Christensen were Alliance visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Erskine entertained the ladies' aid society at a Kensington at the home of Mrs. Elliott.

STEPHENSON-CAHA

Oakley M. Stephenson and Miss Lillian Caha were united in marriage in Alliance on Tuesday February 24. The ceremony took place at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Mearl C. Smith performed the ceremony. Mr. Stephenson and Miss Caha are popular young people in Hemingford and their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous journey down through the shady lovers' lane and out into the matrimonial sea. May no storm arise to mar their joys.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rockey were Alliance visitors Tuesday.

There are few, if any, new influenza cases and the epidemic is subsiding. There are no serious cases at present.

Prof. N. W. Gaines of Lincoln visited the schools Monday and made a fine talk to the school, which all enjoyed very much.

Rev. Mr. Williams of Marsland was in town Saturday coming in on No. 41 and leaving on No. 43. He was on his way home from the inter church conference at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coll were in Alliance Tuesday.

So many people are coming to town that it is difficult to get places to live or rooms.

Mr. Lockwood expects to move into his new store building next week.

Quite a number of sales are now being held in Hemingford. It is a good town to do your trading in. The Wiltsey store and the Hemingford Mercantile Co. store are running or planning a special sale.

Sleighing is popular again. The weather is ideal. Come to the revival. Join the big chorus.

Ora Phillips was in Alliance on Tuesday.

Last Tuesday evening the town was alarmed by the fire bell, but it turned out to be only a little blaze in a boxcar.

The Hans Hansen players entertained the Hemingford residents the first of last week with a selection of good, clean, up-to-date shows, which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Rev. A. J. May of the M. E. church went to Lincoln the first of last week, where he will attend the inter-church convention. He returned the last of the week.

Last Friday evening "Broken Blossoms," a D. W. Griffith production, was shown to a large audience in the opera house.

Ben Johnson spent last week in Alliance.

The revival at the M. E. church began Tuesday evening for a three weeks' run. Rev. Charles Gray, of Blandensville, Ill., is the evangelist and singer. Mrs. Gray has had phenomenal success in former meetings and confidence is expressed that he will be successful here. He is thoroughly a man of God, and Hemingford is fortunate in securing him. He is a strong and interesting speaker, and an excellent singer.

There will be good music and a big choir every night, so be sure and plan on being at the M. E. church promptly at 7:30 every evening. The school operetta is to be given on Monday night, March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and family spent last Tuesday in Alliance.

The influenza cases are improving and the "down" and out" cases are slowly decreasing.

The training for track work in the high school has begun and Hemingford hopes to turn out some winners this season.

James M. Ringer and Miss Florence M. Schipper, both of Hemingford, were issued a marriage license by Judge Tash on Saturday.

Oakley M. Stephenson of Alliance and Lillian Mae Caha of Hemingford were issued a marriage license by the county judge today.

Church Notes

Services every night at the Methodist church. Hear Rev. Mr. Gray.

Rev. Mr. Brown of the Congregational church and Rev. A. J. May of the M. E. church and George Schneider attended the inter church conference at Lincoln on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week.

There were 800 preachers and a large number of laymen in attendance and a great program was given.

Several Things To Think About

In selecting a bank you should consider: Its financial strength; the care with which it is managed; the courtesy and spirit of accommodation displayed by the officers and employes; the banking experience of its officers; the ability of the bank to properly and promptly handle all your business.

We will soon be in our new building which will give Hemingford depositors all the conveniences of a modern banking house.
