

SOCIETY

Following a banquet to be given at Masonic hall this evening, a Scottish Rite Woman's club will be formed. Mothers, daughters and sisters of Scottish Rite Masons holding degrees from the fourteenth up are eligible to membership in the new organization.

Charles Widman, who has been visiting friends in Omaha several days this week, returned to Alliance Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Becker and family will leave the latter part of the week for an extended stay in California.

—Don't miss seeing that fine of Girls' Hosiery at factory prices. Highland-Holloway Co. 28

Mrs. W. R. Harper entertained the ladies' aid of the M. E. church on Wednesday afternoon at a business and social meeting. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Frank Dunning will leave the first of next week for Hysam, Mont., where she will spend the next three or four months, returning to Alliance later.

Harry Thiele is absent on a business trip to the east.

The Alliance Woman's club will meet at the parish house this afternoon for the annual election of officers.

—The same beloved Mary Pickford, with her smiles and tears, her loves and hates, her whims and winning ways in an entirely new characterization at the Imperial tonight. 28

County Judge Tash Thursday afternoon issued license to wed to Glen L. Ortman, whose home address is given as Ranger, Tex., and Miss Catherine Underwood. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Underwood, living twelve miles west of the city.

The American Legion dance held at the city armory Tuesday evening was one of the most successful ever given by that organization, the receipts being in excess of $200. A large crowd was present and a majority of them were out on the floor most the time, availing themselves of the music furnished by Andy's jazz orchestra.

Mrs. Fred Carlson entertained at a bunco party Thursday evening. The guests included Miss Morrow, Mrs. McDonald, Miss Mary Wilson, Miss Rosamond Bargey, Miss Opal Russell, Miss McKosky and Miss Gertrude McHugh. A dainty luncheon was served.

—For Sale—Two six room houses on Sweetwater. Modern except heat. Price and terms right. See Nebraska Land Company. 4

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smart and Miss Josephine Ganson will spend the week end in Denver.

Mrs. F. J. Brennan, who has been ill for the past few days, has recovered.

Bull Douglas, traveling representative for the Pryor Hat company of Denver, was in Alliance Thursday.

Velva Irene Irwin, age sixteen years, ten months and three days, died March 2, at her home in Antioch. She was born at Gordon, Neb. Funeral services were held at the Christian church March 4. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

Wednesday night the young people of the First Baptist church had a social at the Home of Mrs. C. Fuller. About twenty young people were present. An hour was spent in interesting games. The young ladies were entertained by the young men. A delightful lunch was served. All reported a very enjoyable time.

—You will fall in love with Mary Pickford all over again in this story of her loyalty to "Pap" in the feudist battles. Imperial tonight. 28

The woman's society of the First Baptist church met with Mrs. Henry. Though it was a very cold day the attendance was splendid.

A birthday party for all the ladies who have birthdays in March was held at the First Baptist church. This brought in a splendid collection. Mrs. Fred Heipbringer read a paper: "Neighbors Who Should Be Made Friends." Instrumental music by Mrs. T. A. Cross was very much enjoyed.

Phyllis J. Barnes of Marquette, Mich., and Mamie May of Milwaukee were married by Judge Tash, March 4.

Tom Gee and Dave Donivan went to Torrington Tuesday to file on a claim at that place.

An eight pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson Thursday morning.

Mrs. W. L. O'Keefe was shopping in Scottsbluff Thursday.

Mrs. Johnston accompanied her husband on his trip last week.

—Mary Pickford as a Night Rider, whirls over the mountains with the clansmen at her heels. Look for this tremendous scene in "Heart O' the Hills" at Imperial Theatre tonight.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR SPUD EXHIBIT CAR

H. L. Ford, advance agent for the potato exhibit car, now being shown on Burlington and Colorado & Southern lines, was in Alliance on Thursday, perfecting arrangements for the program in connection with the coming of the car to Alliance on March 19.

According to present plans, the car will arrive in this city at 4 a. m., and will be open to the public from 8:30 to 10:30 a. m. At 10:30 a public meetin will be held in the armory, at which addresses will be made by a number of speakers, including instructors in agricultural colleges. Methods of control of plant diseases will be explained, as will the system of grading and marketing, together with other subjects of prime importance to potato growers.

The exhibit will be an interesting one. There will be a showing of all the known varieties, and in connection with this a guessing contest will be staged, with a prize awarded to the one who identifies the largest number of the varieties thrown together in one box. There will be an exhibit of hand selected certified seeds from Wisconsin, and exhibits of all the common potato diseases.

—Would you shoot your s-e-p-f-a-t-h-e-r to protect your mother. See what Mary Pickford, the little mountain girl, does in "Heart O' the Hills," at the Imperial Theatre tonight. 28

One Minute Store Talk

"Here I am again; every year I wait until I get to Alliance before buying my spring clothes—no other store in Nebraska is so well equipped to serve a man as you are, and I'm just selfish enough to pass 'em all up until I get here," said a business man, a steady customer of ours.
