WILL ORGANIZE BANDS OF CAMPFIRE GIRLS

Some time within the next two weeks, steps will be taken to organize at least ten bands of Campfire girls in Alliance. There are already one or two such bands in the city, and an effort will be made to induce these to affiliate. The high school girls will be among the first organized, and following this the work of organization will be taken up in the grade schools, churches and elsewhere.
 Each campfire must have at least six members, and not more than twenty. Only girls over twelve years of age are eligible to membership. The leader, who must be over eighteen years of age, is called the guardian of the fire, and receives her appointment direct from the national council.
 Those interested should get into touch with Miss Josephine Ganson at the Red Cross home service offices in the court house.

—Friday, April 23, is the date for the senior class play, "Safety First." A three-act comedy by home talent players. Don't fail to see it.

P. J. Michal of Hemingford is in the city on business today (Friday). Phil was one of the forty Hemingford volunteers who "dug out" the stranded passenger last Monday night near Girard. He handled a snow shovel like a veteran and set a pace for the others to follow that kept the exceedingly busy.
