Even Up
A roadmaster for a middle western railroad was much incensed on finding one of his subordinates getting a shave while on duty. "What's the idea?" he roared. "Getting your beard shaved on the company's time?" "Idea yourself," came back the offender. "It grew on the company's time, didn't it?"

A New One On Her
While her big brother was in France, little Dorothy exercised her patriotism in learning war songs. One day after his return, he entered the room where she was playing with her doll and singing "Over There."
"Why, Dorothy," he said, "don't you know the war is over?"
She looked at him quizzically and replied:
"Hum it, and I'll see if I do."

Clerk—We can't pay you the twenty-five dollars on this money-order until you are identified.
Man—That's tough. There's only one man in town who can identify me, and I owe him twenty.—Boston Transcript.

An English newspaper carries the following want-ad: "Wanted—Loud second-hand gramophone—for reprisals."
