ALLIANCE BRIEFS.

T. J. Lawrence was in from his ranch Tuesday. He reports that the rain was pretty heavy in that part of the county, and that there was some hail accompanying it. The storm delayed the farmers getting into the fields for a day or two, and as they already have a late start, every day counts.

William Coleman, railroad employe, drew a fine of $10 and costs, a total of $15, before Judge Roberts Wednesday afternoon on a charge of intoxication. Chief Taylor found the brother propped up against the tool house in the Burlington yards, and promptly took him in tow. He declares that he is a railroad and that he has money coming from Dewey, where he was last employed. He was written for it, and in the meantime is being held in the city bastille.

At the request of the defendant, the case of Thomas vs. Staley was given a continuance of seven days in justice court this morning. Harold Thomas purchased the residence property on April 16, which Jim Staley has been renting at 628 East Seventh street and has asked the ejection of Staley on the grounds that he has persistently refused to give possession.

The Northwestern Baptist Association is to be held with the First Baptist Church of Alliance, June 11 to 14. Plans are now being made for the entertainment of the delegates that will be present at that meeting.

WRESTLING MATCH AT ARMORY TUESDAY

One of the fastest wrestling matches that Alliance will have the opportunity of seeing for some time will be pulled off at the Armory next Tuesday evening, when Pete Buzukos of San Francisco, welterweight champion of the world, will meet Bennie Gurda of Des Moines, Ia. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8 p. m., and it will be some entertainment.

PETER BUZUKOS

Two 4-round boxing exhibitions, the principals being live local battlers, will comprise the prelims. The excitement will be fast and furious from the start, and the promoters say there won't be a dull moment during the evening.

Buzukos has been in the wrestling game for fifteen years and has never been defeated in the 145-pound class. He is a scientific performer, and has a knack of putting them on the mat. Among Buzukos' latest victories was the winning of a match with Jack Reynolds at Cedar Rapids a few months ago. Gurda is well known among mat fans. A few weeks ago he wrestled two hours to a draw with Reynolds. The two men will be fairly evenly matched, both know the fine points of the game, and Tuesday's bout ought to be a hum-dinger.—Adv.

RAILROAD NOTES.

R. E. Draper had two toes on his left foot badly mashed Tuesday morning when a main rod slipped from the truck on which it was loaded, letting it fall on his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Driscoll returned yesterday from Sheridan where they were called last week on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Driscoll's sister.

Machinist R. E. Rednall returned from a three weeks visit to St. Louis. Mrs. A. W. Newberg and son Donald expect to make a visit to Guernsey, Wyo., in the near future.

Machinist P. Peterson leaves next week for a visit to Philadelphia, Pa. Dwight Boring, Hostler Helper has been transferred to locomotive fireman.

Miss Elsie McGuire, daughter of Engineer E. L. McGuire is making a few weeks visit with relatives at Ravenna.

Mrs. V. E. Hall and Mrs. M. A. Dickinson are visiting at Scottsbluff. Beverly McGill, son of Roundhouse foreman left yesterday for a short visit to Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Johnson expect to leave soon for Excelsior Springs where Mrs. Johnson will remain for treatment.

The Herald, in presenting its list of soldiers who died in the late war, made it as complete as was possible. There were undoubtedly some who were overlooked, among them being William C. Hammond of company C, 355th Infantry, who was killed in action November 4, 1918. If any of our readers know of others, we will be pleased to add them to the printed list. The American Legion is compiling such a record.
