William Nye took fourteen head of cattle to the Albright ranch for the summer.

Mrs. Coppennoll, who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Cline, left Sunday for a visit to her old home in Iowa.

Wilfred Griffith and wife from town spent Sunday visiting relatives here.

Sunday school and church services were well attended last Sunday, the attendance being about seventy-five.

Tom Aspden and wife of Whitman are here visiting with Mr. Aspden's parents.

D. R. Lawrence hauled three loads of hogs to town Tuesday, which he shipped through the Farmers' Union association.

The ice cream supper given by the Fairview local of the farmers' union Tuesday night was not very well attended on account of the storm and bad roads.

Grace Lawrence is slowly recovering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism which has kept her in bed for the past three weeks.

LAKESIDE.

Ed Cody was in from his ranch Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Empson visited at the Lunsford home Sunday.

Little Viva very pleasantly entertained a bunch of little girls at her home in east Lakeside Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her seventh birthday. The afternoon was spent playing games. Ice cream and cake were served. A jolly good time was reported. (Note by editor: The failure to give the last name of the little hostess does not lie with us. She and her friends will know who the article concerns, so we wouldn't leave it out for anything. Many happy returns.)

We were visited by a nice rain Monday night and Tuesday evening by another light shower, accompanied by an electrical storm and wind.

Mrs. DeFrance and children were in from the ranch Tuesday.

Paul and Thelma Palmer were in from the ranch Tuesday.

Mrs. J. G. Beck and grandchildren were west bound passengers Monday.

Mrs. J. D. Whaley went to Alliance Tuesday.

Mrs. Empson left for Chappell, Neb., on No. 43 Tuesday. Mr. Empson will ship the household goods this week. They will move into the beautiful new home they recently purchased at that place. Billie and Clyde, Jr., will remain at the Osborn home for a while.

Ed Tyler is working at the Hord plant.

Mrs. McKinney was in town from her home near Ellsworth Wednesday afternoon.

Want Any Help

Next week will be general Clean-Up Week for the City of Alliance. The Mayor and City Physician are urging citizens to act and act wisely with regard to the rubbish and trash that accumulates when it is not taken care of at regular intervals.

It is my business to keep the alleys and back yards looking spick and span, and all I need is the authorization from you to commence work.

During Clean-Up Week you will surely want something done. Just Phone 281 and leave your order and I will do the rest.

After this particular week is over, the necessity for clean-up work is not over. You can make arrangements to have the place kept looking nice at all times.

The Cost Is Not Great, Considering the Service Rendered
