COACH PRINCE TO WED.

Invitations have been received by Alliance friends to the wedding of Miss Fern Lyman Warner and Mr. C. F. Prince, principal of the Alliance high school, which will take place Wednesday, June 2. Mr. Prince will bring his bride to Alliance shortly after the wedding, where the groom is to be an instructor in the summer school.

PARTY AT PARISH HOUSE

About eighty guests were delightfully entertained at the Parish House Thursday afternoon by the ladies of the Episcopal guild. The affair was a combination Kensington and card party, Mrs. Mann winning the prize for a guessing contest and Mrs. Ed Marks carrying off the honors in bridge. A delicious lunch was served about 5 o'clock.

Invitations to this interesting party were in the shape of a tiny apron with this message in the pocket:

"We are sending you an apron, with style enough for any taste. Please return it with a penny."

For each inch around your waist. Each member of the guild was responsible for the presence of three guests beside herself, making one complete table. $27.00 was received through the apron route to defray expenses.

WOMAN'S CLUB RECEPTION

The reception for new members held at the Library by the Woman's club last Tuesday afternoon was a most successful and enjoyable affair. About sixty guests were present and many new members were added to the club, bringing its membership up to ninety. A pleasing program was rendered consisting of an address of welcome by the outgoing president, Mrs. Alice McDonald, a talk by Mrs. Rowan, a recitation by Alice Brittan and a reading by Margaret Turner. Also a number of musical selections were given. Refreshments were served and the room was tastefully decorated with carnations.

MRS. FINCH ENTERTAINS

Mrs. C. L. Finch entertained a number of friends at cards last evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. T. C. Terry of Julesburg, Colo., who is visiting here. The following guests were present: Misses Edna Benedict, Avis Joder, Mamie Collins; Mesdames John Beach, T. C. Terry, Bert Duncan, M. J. Baskin, A. W. Newberg, Harry Patrick; and Miss Merk and Miss Sward.

After a pleasant evening spent in playing five-hundred at which Mrs. Bert Duncan won honors, and Mrs. John Beach received the consolation, a delicious two-course lunch was served. Tables were prettily decorated with sweet peas.

W. C. T. U.

The mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Henry, yesterday afternoon, was well attended. A most enjoyable program was prepared, consisting of readings by various members of the society, and a solo by Mrs. J. W. Reed, entitled, "Mother's White Ribbon." Five new recruits were dedicated, including two pair of twins, Jacquelin and Gene Pallow, thirteen months old, and Colombe, Martha Conner and Clyde Allan Conner, aged five years. Also Pershing Gould, aged about one year. Mrs. F. M. Phelps was leader.
