

A CHANGE OF LOCATION

On or about July 1 we will be moved to our new location at 124 East Third Street, where we will have ample room to handle any or all of your business you wish to give us.

ALIANCE HIDE & FUR COMPANY

Dealers in Hides, Furs, Wool, Rags, Rubber and Metals of all Kinds.

LAKESIDE.

By Ruth Pollard.

Cool and cloudy all day Sunday. A hard rain accompanied by some hail, thunder and lightning in the evening. The water is still standing in the streets this morning and it still looks like rain.

Misses Wilma and Beatrice Westover were in town visiting, Sunday.

George Lindley has built an addition to the north side of his pool hall and rented it to Clyde Simmons for a barber shop.

About 8 o'clock Thursday evening the church members, friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Claud Willoughby and went in a body to the parsonage, where a very pleasant evening was spent in playing games, singing and music. Sandwiches and coffee were served. We all wish the Rev. and Mrs. Birmingham a long and prosperous journey through life.

R. C. Brunson was in from the Star ranch Saturday.

Miss Ruth Staples went to Wyoming Saturday.

Joe Cade returned from a western trip the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carry were in from their ranch one day last week.

George Drake has rented the building known as the Royal Ice Cream parlor and moved in Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Debord is visiting at Hay Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cherry and Mrs. Clark Giles were in from the southeast Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cook drove to Antioch Sunday afternoon.

Leo Berries has returned from a trip to Wyoming.

Mrs. Elise Ash and sons, Alva and Ellsworth, were in from their home east of town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Easton left for their home in Omaha Wednesday.

Miss Zora Young of Lincoln is visiting her friend, Miss Frances Hunsacker.

After a pleasant visit with relatives over in Lancaas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Hendrickson have returned to the sandhills. He has a position in a store at Whitman.

Ralph Trestler was in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Herman were in from their big ranch south of town Saturday.

A. R. Olson was called to Bloomington Saturday to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law at that place.

T. B. Gorman, operator, has gone to Omaha on a vacation.

Mrs. Anthony Morris entertained the ladies' kenington at her home Thursday afternoon.

There was no Decoration Day program in our little village Sunday, but the people turned out and paid their respects to the dead by decorating their graves Sunday.

NEBRASKA NEWS NOTES

THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO

Loup City is promised an opera house 50x80 feet.

Inland cornfields are being damaged by the omnipresent chinch bug.

The new town hall at Callaway will be opened next week with a free ball.

Sarpy county grape-growers expect to harvest 100 tons of grapes this year.

The first fair of Dawes county was held at Chadron last week and was a success.

The Louisville pottery is being rebuilt, and will be ready for business next spring.

S. W. Holland, the artist, lost finished picture to the value of $78 in the North Bend fire.

The safe of the North Bend bank came out of the fire with the cash intact and the time clock in working order.

A street fakir in O'Neill recently "roped in" some of the leading citizens of the town on the give-away money racket to advertise his firm.

One of the late industries of Dawes county is charcoal burning. There is an abundance of timber, and ready sale is had for the product at profitable prices.

The affairs of the First National Bank at Blair are found to be in a much better condition than at first supposed. Stockholders and depositors will receive their money in full.

The trial of Casey, who robbed a stage of $6,000 government funds last January, is now in progress and has attracted a large attendance at the district court of Dawes county.

Thomas Casey, the stage coach driver, charged with the robbery of the treasure box of the Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express, between Chadron and Fort Robinson, has been acquitted.

The Prairie creek, Merrick county, bird protective society has filed a number of complaints for infraction of the game laws. The members say they mean business and intend to prosecute all violators against whom they can get evidence.

While Miss Crowder, of Hamburg, who has been on a visit to Miss Wyckoff at Omaha, was walking with the latter lady a fellow snatched her hand bag at a crossing. Miss Crowder made a plucky resistance during which she was pulled down and Miss Wyckoff pounded him vigorously with her umbrella. The thief got off with the bag, however, containing about $9.

The exhibits at the York county fair, which has been held at York since Monday, are the finest ever made in the county. Rain has interfered every day and unless the weather improves the fair will be a dismal failure. It is intended to continue till Saturday.

While in the country the other day Will Stewart of O'Neill attended a ball and becoming enamored of the belle of the evening he asked if he might claim her for a partner in a waltz on the program. "No, much blegged," was the artless reply; "them round dances allus turn my stomach."

BOX BUTTE NEWS OF

THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO

Busy—Land locaters. Flourishing—Nonparell.

Sprouting—Jackson's moustache. Engineer Gillett, paid our town a visit this week.

Work on the new school house is rapidly progressing.

Everybody enjoyed a good meal of fresh beef yesterday.

Hart & Wiker are treating their building to a coat of paint.

Geo. Lowdell is building a frame house on his claim west of town.

A match game of base ball will be played at Nonparell next Saturday.

Twenty-two teams standing on our streets at one time last Monday.

Al Saling is amusing our people this week by riding bucking bronchos.

Hemingford will shed her Hare in a short time and become a nice little burg.

Orvil Kidwell's broncho was badly cut by running into a barb wire fence last week.

Everybody leaves their work and turns out to see Al Saling ride wild bronchos.

Mr. Adams, of Broken Bow, arrived in town Wednesday. He will settle on his claim south of town.

Mr. Hampton and Mr. Smith of Hemingford were in town Monday discussing important business matters.

Dan Mauk has gone to his home in Custer county on a visit—but perhaps he has another object in view.

The B. & M. surveyors are running another line one and one half miles north of town it is reported that they are setting grade stakes.

The big boom has struck Nonparell, in dead earnest. She is already nearly double the size of any of her neighbors, and "the end is not yet."

It is reported that the contest for county seat of Sheridan county, between Hay Springs and Rushville, was decided in favor of the latter.

A herd of cattle passed through town last week, which numbered 2,145 head. They came from the Hart ranch, and were on their way to the slaughter yards at Pine Ridge agency to furnish beef steak for the noble red men at that place.

Thursday evening while coming from Hay Springs, Morton Gyer, who has been stage driver between here and the above named town, had the misfortune to lose one of his horses. He was leading it behind the coach when the animal fell to the ground and died almost instantly. Mr. Gyer has resigned his position as stage driver.

PRECOCIUS LAMP.

Kid—How old is that lamp, ma?

Ma—Oh, about three years.

Kid—Turn it down. It's too young to smoke.—Examiner.

Another Royal Suggestion

MUFFINS and POPOVERS

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

BREAKFAST is too often eaten as a duty rather than a joy. The success of the day may depend upon the spirit of breakfast. The Royal Educational Department presents some breakfast dishes that will send the children to school with a hip hip hurrah and his majesty man to his daily duties with the "up and doing" feeling which knows no discouragement.

Muffins

2 cups flour
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
2 eggs
1 tablespoon shortening
Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt; add milk, well-beaten eggs and melted shortening; mix well. Grease muffin tins and put two tablespoons of batter into each. Bake in hot oven 20 to 25 minutes.

Egless Muffins

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening
Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk and melted shortening and beat until smooth. Bake in greased muffin tins in hot oven 20 to 25 minutes.

Corn Muffins

1/2 cup corn meal
1 1/2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg

Sift together corn meal, flour, baking powder, salt and sugar; add milk, melted shortening and well-beaten egg; mix well. Grease muffin tins and drop two tablespoons of mixture into each. Bake about 35 minutes in hot oven.

Popovers

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
2 cups milk

Sift together flour and salt. Make a well in flour, break eggs into well, add milk and stir until smooth. Pour into hot greased gem pans and bake 25 to 35 minutes in a very hot oven. If taken out of oven too soon they will fall.

SENT FREE

New Royal Cook Book containing scores of delightful, economical recipes, many of them the most famous in use today. Address ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 115 Fulton Street New York City

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

"Bake with Royal and be Sure"

See What A Bank Account Can Do For You

This is just one of the world of possibilities open to depositors in this bank. Any one can do wonders with even a small account. A trip to the seashore, a trip to the mountains, an electric sweeper for the wife, new furniture for the house—an investment that will pay you money,— any of the number of things you wish to buy but feel the expense is too great.

The secret is this: Save now, a small amount at a time, while you have no special urge to spend the money. Then later, when you really want or need something, you will be in a position to have it. Sickness or unexpected financial difficulties will have no terrors for you.

You Can Do It If You Start—
Just Don't Stop

We will be glad to explain to you at any time how the plan works out—what interest you receive, in fact all about it.

The First State Bank

Alliance, Nebraska

SERVICE SATISFACTION QUALITY

HARVEY'S CAFE

Will be opened some time in the middle of June at 222 Box Butte Avenue, in the building formerly occupied by Vaughn & Son, and the Nebraska and Co.

The place will be entirely remodeled, and fitted up in the finest style. The aim of the owner, J. C. Harvey, who has had considerable experience in this business, will be to conduct an A-No. 1 Cafe, where only the finest quality food will be served, in a fitting manner.

J. C. Harvey

222 Box Butte Proprietor Alliance, Neb.

McGraw Tires and Tubes

In buying Tires and Tubes invest your dollars to the best advantage.

Buy Fabric Tires guaranteed to run 6000 miles

FOR SALE BY

FARMERS' UNION

ALLIANCE

NEBRASKA