LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

There was a good attendance and considerable interest was shown in the discussion of the suggestions read from the children's code commission. A study was also made of the first twelve constitutional amendments. A piano selection given by Mrs. B. Ponath was greatly enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Reed the first Thursday in July.

JAZZ MUSIC COMING

Alliance dancers have a treat in store for them in the coming of the celebrated Memphis Red Devils. They are reported to be a little bit the best dispensers of jazz music heard here this season. On Monday evening, June 7, at the Armory, under the management of Messrs. Brennan and Clark for the Alliance Volunteer Firemen's association, this orchestra will furnish the music. Everyone who has danced, does dance or wishes to try, is requested to be on hand promptly at 9 o'clock. An evening of rare enjoyment awaits all who attend. A special invitation is extended to the older couples who attend less regularly than the others.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farrell are entertaining Miss Mabel Rockey and Claude Hazelton to a six o'clock dinner today.

Mrs. Jeffers entertained with a four-course dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Gladys's birthday. The house was beautifully decorated in pink carnations and lilacs. Those present were: Misses Ruby Beaman, Vera Jeffers and Gladys Jeffers, Messrs. Hugh McCormick, Hurshel Burworth and Sergeant Frey.

ONE MINUTE STORE TALK

"The clothing men of this country have spent just about all the years of their lives in the realms of sentimentalism, and with the logical result that in a period of readjustment and unsettled conditions, people still expect a clothing store to be more than a business house and it is," said a customer who realized:

That proportionately clothing is the lowly in the world today.
