ANNOUNCEMENTS

METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday will be Children's day. At the morning service an opportunity will be given for all those wishing to have small children baptised to present them. Following the baptismal service an address will be given by Mrs. Ethel Lasby, representing the woman's foreign missionary society. The program by the children will be given at the evening service.

It might be well to mention at this time that the young people's gospel team of Hemingford, numbering about twenty, have accepted the invitation of our Epworth league to be with us on Sunday night, June 20, and take entire charge of the evening service. This team has been to neighboring towns and conducted services with much success. Further announcements will be made next week.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be special services at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. The Northwestern Baptist association will be in session, and some of the state representatives of the denomination will be here. This will be the principal day of the meeting and everybody is invited to the services. The orchestra will play. They always have something special for those who enjoy good music. Bring your friends and enjoy a good time. Remember this is the "home-like church," and in matters of religious preference as well as everything else, there is no place like home.

J. ORRIN GOULD, Minister.

PRESBYTERIAN

With Sunday school at 9:45 it is the early ones who get the banner.

Morning worship at 11 a. m. This service will be devoted to the Sunday school in the Children's day exercises. The program is entitled, "Under the Banner of Truth," and we are sure you will enjoy the songs and drills of the little folks. A special offering will be taken in the interests of Sabbath school missions. Evening service, 8 p. m. We will hear a report of the great meeting of the general assembly at Philadelphia by J. L. Overman, who was a commissioner from Box Butte presbytery. Be an Informed Presbyterian. Come.

Christian endeavor service, 7 p. m. "Common Mistakes in Daily Life." Leader, Miss Ethel James.

All are cordially invited to these services. First Presbyterian church, corner Box Butte avenue at Seventh street. A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The summer is now here and it brings us to the convention season. The convention of the First Nebraska district will be held at Gering next week. The dates are June 16 and 17. A splendid program has been prepared. The state Sunday school convention will be held at Scottsbluff June 18 to 20. This is the first time the state Sunday school convention has come to our part of the state. Alliance ought to send at least twenty-five delegates.

The minister will preach next Lord's day on the following subjects: "The Table of Our Lord," and "One Lord, One Faith and One Baptism."

At the evening service a special orchestra will assist with the worship. We can make this summer the best in our history. United efforts in service and prayer will bring the results. The mid-week meeting of the church each Wednesday evening. This will be followed by the choir practice. Young people's prayer meeting each Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.
