Chautauqua Begins Monday, July 5

"Heart of a Nation" Hon. John Temple Graves
Dr. Ivey Says it Depends on the Social and Economic Life of the Country
NATIONAL SPEAKER TO APPEAR ON CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

Born in the bleakest portion of Northern Michigan, Dr. Paul W. Ivey's early youth was spent in an environment that produced sturdy virtues and virility. His eight years of scientific training, receiving at Lawrence College A.B., University of Illinois, M.A., and University of Michigan P.D., degrees, have been utilized in bettering retail business throughout the middle west and in building up communities.
In the field of retail merchandising, Dr. Ivey is known throughout this country, and abroad for his book, "Elements of Retail Salesmanship." At the present time, Dr. Ivey has charge of the Merchandising, Advertising and Salesmanship classes in the State University of Nebraska.
For the past seven summers, he has been intimately connected with chautauqua work from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains, both in the capacity of lecturer and manager. From this intimate association, with hundreds of communities, he has an understanding of community problems that are possessed by few men in the country. Lecture afternoon of the last day of chautauqua.

The coming of Honorable John Temple Graves the fifth day of our chautauqua will give us a rare opportunity of hearing one of the most gifted world orators. He is a man whose splendid vision, sterling Americanism, and winning eloquence have made him one of the most popular platform speakers in America today.

Honorable Graves will give his masterful lecture, "Armagedden." It is a challenge to a christian civilization to recognize the eternal purposes in permitting the war pestilence, famine and death simultaneously and the vast social unrest, riding like the fifth horseman of the Apocalypse over our world. It is a discussion of the present day problems in a high fair American spirit.
Make your plans now to hear Honorable John Temple Graves.
