FORMER RESIDENT KILLED BY AUTO

Additional particulars concerning the death of nine-year-old Elizabeth Reed September 19 at Nampa, Idaho, are contained in the following account, taken from one of the Nampa newspapers. The little girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Reed, former citizens of Nampa.

Mrs. Reed being at one time in the employ of the Horace Bogue store The article follows:

"A light-hearted little girl, skipping merrily home after a visit to neighbor children across the street, and a swiftly-moving automobile driven by Guy et al principals in a Sunday tragedy that snuffed out the life of Elizabeth Reed, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Reed, and shocked the entire community. The little one was killed instantly when the automobile struck her squarely, breaking her neck and crushing her skull. The driver stopped his machine and went in search of a doctor when he saw the result of the accident. Later he gave himself up to the authorities, but no charge has been placed against him.

"Clayton C. Reed, cashier of the Nampa National Bank and father of the girl, was sitting on the Reed front porch and witnessed the accident. His daughter had been playing at the home of a neighbor directly across the street. Deciding to come home she ran quickly from the yard where she had been playing, and leaped off the curb directly in the path of the approaching automobile. The machine was so close upon her that there was no chance to swing it from its course nor for the child to dodge.

"Reports current throughout the city Sunday afternoon to the effect that he driver did not stop his machine after running over the child are denied by the father.

"Little Elizabeth was an unusually bright and attractive child, and a great favorite with her small playmates as well as older people who knew her and friends of the Reed family. Her tragic death is most lamentable."

John King was found by Officers Taylor and Trabert in the alley back of the Alliance hotel annex about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. King was at first thought to be unconscious, but a more complete investigation, the officers say, showed him to have been asleep. He was taken to the police station, and placed in the upper cell. When Chief Reed arrived at the station the next morning, the door was locked, but the bird had flown. A warrant for King's arrest has been issued.
