Eight Ways to Beat the H. C. L.

1. BE A PRODUCER. Work and earn, to help increase the world's goods, and thereby decrease the cost of necessities.
2. MAKE A BUDGET. Plan how you will dispose of your income. Do not live from "hand to mouth."
3. KEEP YOUR MONEY IN THE BANK. Pay bills by check and put your surplus regularly in savings. This keeps your money safe and helps you to save.
4. KEEP YOUR MONEY IN THE BANK. Pay bills by check and put your surplus regularly in savings. This keeps your money safe and helps you to save.
5. OWN YOUR OWN HOME. Even if you have to go into debt for it, your greatest satisfaction will come from living under your own roof.
6. PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY. Don't obligate yourself beyond the limits of your budget allowances and protect your credit by meeting those obligations promptly.
7. INVEST YOUR SAVINGS. When your savings are sufficient to buy one or more good bonds, go to your banker and buy them.
8. SHARE WITH OTHERS. Realize that every dollar you place in the bank or invest in home town property remains in the community. It is thereby available for local improvement of all kinds. We are all hereto boost this territory and by leaving your money available you do only your share.

Alliance Visitors--A Value Demonstration and Good Clothes Exhibit Extraordinary

Men of the West, your attention is directed to a Fall and Winter campaign of clothes selling, at this Greater Store, that is the most open-handed distribution of values ever heard of in the history of retailing America's finest clothing.

Absurd as it may seem, and uncalled for as it may appear in the face of the west's great prosperity and crop prospects, we, nevertheless, have determined to practically conduct this clothing business this season without our customary small margin, in order to re-establish equilibrium to clothing prices.
