OBITUARY

Donald Leroy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Colerick, was taken sick and after five days of careful nursing, when all was done that the loving parents could do for him, departed this life October 4, 1920. Donald was born in Box Butte county July 27, 1917. He lived three years, two months and seven days. He was a sweet little fellow and loved by his parents and all who knew him.

The funeral services were held at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Slaley, seven miles north of Alliance, on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Elder Stephen J. Epler of the Christian church preached the sermon. Mrs. W. A. McKune and Mrs. A. J. Cole sang and four sisters of Mrs. Colerick acted as pall bearers. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

A COWBOY CAVEMAN AT IMPERIAL TONIGHT

The feature at the Imperial tonight is "The Beast", a William Fox production of unusual interest. It is the tale of the taming of a "wild man" by a girl. The role of the star, the athletic George Walsh, as a cowboy who has yielded to a call of the wild but through a marvelous transmutation becomes a prince charming kneeling at the feet of the girl of his dreams, is one of the best he has done and one of the best ever shown here.

Mack Sennett's big five-reel comedy sensation, "Down on the Farm," is scheduled for Sunday. Do you think farm life is dead from the neck up? No more kicks left in it? Oh, what a lot you've got left to learn. This film depicts the simple life, with all its complications. You'll see nature exposed—that is, you'll see the simple life exposed.

"Away Goes Prudence," starring Billie Burke, is the attraction for Sunday. In this picture Miss Burke is seen as Prudence Thorne, a young society girl who is infatuated with flying and gives up her fiancé and family in order to satisfy her desires. Her sweetheart plays a prank on her by arranging a kidnapping, which results in her being held by a gang of thieves and becoming their tool. She is finally returned to her parents when she breaks into her own home.

The new serial, "Hidden Dangers," has been changed from Sunday to Monday, due to the fact that train connections from Denver may at any time ball up the schedule. Next Monday, in addition to another installment of the thriller, there will be Mary Miles Minter in "Judy of Rogue's Harbor."

The bolder the highwayman the sooner he undertakes one too many jobs.

EVERYBODY WANTS "LOWER PRICES"

☞ There's only one way to get lower prices in clothes Buy good ones The "lower price" is in the longer wear --not in the price ticket
