Sam Smiley has figured out how Taft can support both the league of nations and Harding at the same time. He says Taft's support of Harding is like the case of the woman who marries a man to reform him.

Oh, well—today ends most of the argument.

Which won't make any of us sore.

Wonder who will win all the election bets? Bet Abe wins some of them.

Wonder which side will do the crowing? After it's all over, we mean. Both of them are doing a lot of advance cheering.

Wonder when the restaurants will quit charging 5 cents extra for a side dish of mashed potatoes. Spuds are down less than a dollar a bushel.

Hitch your wagon to a star, if you feel that way, but keep your feet on the ground.

Young man at the movies, buzzing interestedly into the ear of his lady friend. So enthralled was he, that he didn't notice that his head was directly in front of hers, and that if she saw the pictures, her eyes must have been able to penetrate solid ivory. "Huh," grunted a bachelor. "He'd save a whole seat if he'd sit on her lap."

This happened at a meeting of the

Cox-Roosevelt club: The crowd was there, twenty-five or thirty strong, laying plans to defeat the republican. Enter Oscar Reed, chief of all the cops. "Now we're all here," said Oscar, "don't you think it about time to take a straw vote on the presidency?"

Oscar has it about figured out that he republicans followed this method. Pick your crowd, and the straw vote will always turn out satisfactory.

In Kamchatka, we read with interest, it is possible to get drunk on toadstools. Somebody better tip off Gus Myers, so that he can be prepared to arrest toadstools in sight.

Somehow, rather than eat toadstools to get a kick, we'd rather stay sober.

There are limits, you know.

Ole Buck: Men candidates have always made a hit with the mothers by kissing the babies. A Harvard woman says when she runs for office she is going to offset that vote by kissing the daddies. There will be some real excitement when that campaign gets under way.

"She's the most fortunate girl," sighed one of the lady boarders. "They say he is an only son, and he has had a hope chest for ten years. It has the most beautiful things in it."

A man with a nope chest—shucks, that isn't out of the way. Didn't a man win one at the last church raffle?

We'll bet the bride-to-be appreciates it as much as we do.

Today's Best Story.

"So you attend Sunday school regularly?" the minister said to little Eve.

"Oh, yes, sir."

"And you know your Bible?"

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Could you perhaps tell me something that is in it?"

"I could tell you everything that's in it."

"Indeed." And the minister smiled. "Do tell me, then."

"Sister's beau's photo is in it," said little Eve promptly, "and ma's recipe for vanishin' cream is in it, and a lock of my hair cut off when I was a baby is in it, and the ticket for pa's watch is in it."

Two sailors at a dog show were gazing at a valuable Skye terrier, which had so much hair that it looked more like a woolen mat than a dog.

"Which end is 'is 'ead, Tom?" asked one.

"Blowed if I know," was the reply. "Here, I'll stick a pin in him, and you look which end barks."—Good Hardware.

That the profiteering landlord makes reds is the charge of protesting tenants, but little that worries the profiteering landlord so long as he makes the money.

It has been discovered that the poet Burns required a big hat. But then not everybody who requires a big head measurement comes so honestly by it.

Farmers' wealth is computed like that of the dentists. The money they make depends on the numbers of achers they work on.

"BEST EVER MADE" STATES MRS. BRAND

Wants Others to Know How Tanlac Overcome Her Rheumatism And Indigestion.

"Tanlac has proved such a blessing to me that I just want other sufferers to know about it," declared Mrs. Mary A. Brand, of 820 West Second street, Des Moines, Ia.

"For five years," continued Mrs. Brand, "I was in mighty bad health, shortly after eating anything my stomach would hurt until the pain became almost unbearable. Gas pressed against my heart, causing it to palpitate dreadfully, and when I exerted myself in any way I just had to fight for breath.

"I had awful headaches and dizzy pells, and my nerves were ~~was~~ running. I suffered from rheumatism in my right arm and in my ankles, and ~~at~~ times I could scarcely raise my hand above my head. I was restless, couldn't get enough sleep, and got up in the mornings feeling miserable.

"After reading about Tanlac I decided to try it, and I can eat anything I want, even beans and onions, and not be bothered with indigestion. I no longer suffer from gas on my stomach, and am free from dizziness, headaches, palpitations and shortness of breath. The rheumatism pains are entirely gone, and my nerves are steady and normal again. I sleep fine, and get up in the mornings feeling refreshed and full of energy."

Tanlac is sold in Alliance by F. E. Holsten, in Hemingford by Hemingford Merc. Co., in Hoffland by Mallery Grocery Co.

One shudders at the thought, but what would happen to the publicity market if two film stars ~~acted~~ for a divorce at the same time?

Agitation is rife in the west for a six-hour day—which would hardly give sufficient leisure to denounce resulting advance in prices.

A Checking Account Is Your Greatest Measure of Defense

- Defend yourself against waste—Cash is rarely seen save at the vanishing point. It dwindles, it scatters you know not where. But you THINK when you write a check. You have a record of where the money goes. Payments are systematized, expenditures reduced.
- A checking account protects you against loss of your money by fire, theft, carelessness, forgetfulness. It means your funds are safe.
- Defend yourself against trickery and mistake—File your checks. They make indisputable receipts, sparing you twice payment of bills, for on the back of every cancelled check which comes back to you is the signature of the person or the firm which received the money.
- Build a fortress against sickness, accident and old age—You save a surplus and it will save you sometime. And remember, by the way, that writing more deposit tickets than checks is the secret of both safety and success.
- Ward off the inconvenience and worry—A checking account in our bank ranks with free mail delivery and the telephone. It saves you a long trip, and you always have the right to change. Your money is always available, payable on demand. No expense—we supply check books, passbooks and all necessary stationary free.

ONCE in a while we run across a man who says, "Aw, they don't make cigarettes like they used to—one's as good as another now-a-days."

All right, we'll give that smoker any kind of odds he wants on Spur and win hands down.

Perhaps you are looking for that good old-time tobacco taste. Spurs are chock full of it. Couldn't help but be, with that jim-dandy blend of choice Turkish, fine Burley and other home-grown tobaccos.

Light up a Spur—take a long puff—and quicker than you can say "Jack Robinson" you will jump for a seat on the Spur band wagon.

Spurs have another surprise for you—they're crimped, not pasted. No other cigarette is rolled with the crimped seam, and you benefit by easier drawing, longer burning, better taste.

And here's extra measure—three-fold package of rich brown and silver to keep Spurs fresh and fragrant.

No use dodging—Spurs meet you at every turn.
