ANGORA.

J. W. Perkins was a passenger to Dalton Saturday.

Leo Guszak who attends high business in Alliance between trains Saturday.

B. M. Kelly and wife transacted business in Alliance between trains.

W. N. Thompson looked after business matters in Alliance Friday and Saturday.

Miss Sylvia Hutchinson and mother of Alliance were week-end guests at the Ward Miles home.

Mrs. Lyle Glan was an Alliance visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Howard Johnson transacted business in Bridgeport Tuesday.

Alvin Turman is at home after several days' stay at the hospital in Bayard. After Mr. Turman's accident two weeks ago, when he lost two fingers on his right hand, blood poisoning developed and he went to Bayard for treatment. Fortunately the physician in charge was able to check the poison and he was able to return home the latter part of last week.

John W. Shoopman and wife were called to Cairo Tuesday by a telegram saying Mr. Shoopman's father was dangerously ill and had but a few hours to live.

Max Schwieger and wife of Grand Island and Walter Wier, wife and baby of Oshkosh came Saturday for a brief visit with Mrs. Schwieger and Mr. Wier's sister, Mrs. Elmer Morehead and family.

Mrs. Abbie Stoner who has been making her home in Scottsbluff is here looking after business matters, and visiting her sister, Mrs. Lillian Stoner.

There was a dance and box supper given at the Ward Miles home Saturday night. The supper was given by Miss Louisa Davis, the teacher of the Miles school, to obtain money to purchase an oil stove and cooking utensils so that hot lunches may be served to the school children. There was a good crowd and a fine time is reported.

A. D. Bruner of Des Moines, Ia., father of Mrs. George Venell, met with a serious accident shortly after his return home from Alliance, where he visited Mrs. Venell. Mr. Bruner was riding in the back seat of an automobile when the driver struck a high culvert going at full speed. Three physicians worked with him several hours before he regained consciousness. It was thought at first that his neck was broken but later found that his injuries consisted of severe bruises about the head and body and several teeth knocked out.

F. H. Nazelschneider of Goodbreak was in Angora the first of the week. Miss Anna Dixon is on the sick list this week. Miss Sophia Guszak is staying with her.

Word comes from Lynn of a serious accident, one day last week, to Mrs. Kisner, mother of Floyd Kisner and Mrs. Stella Ring. The Kisner automobile got into a mud hole near Lynn and a wagon and team was hitched on to the car in order to drag it out. Mrs. Kisner was to drive the team and in climbing into the wagon, she fell and she is in a serious condition.

R. T. Ely is the new manager of the R. S. Proffit store at this place. Mr. Ely is well known to the people here, having held this same position a period of several years. He resigned four years ago to attend to private business matters. During this time there have been several people appointed to this job and last month Mr. Proffit came in person to Angora and again offered Mr. Ely the position with an increase in salary. He moved his family to the Prouditt cottage last week. Walter Woods has rented the Ely farm and moved last Friday to the same.

The "real summer weather" has fallen into the disagreeable habit of holding off until it can do the most damage to the fall theatrical openings.
