

SOCIETY

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Griggs entertained a number of friends Sunday evening, at a seven course turkey dinner. The house was beautifully decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums. The guests invited were, Messrs. and Mesdames F. W. Harris, Percy Cogswell, A. V. Gavin, A. V. Arnold, A. G. Smart, F. T. Helpfänger, C. E. Slagle, Marcus Frankle, Mrs. Lillian Coyner, Miss Josephine Ganson and Miss Fannie Street of Seattle, Wash. The occasion happened to be the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the host and hostess which fact had leaked out and the guests began the evening's festivities with an informal serenade, giving a clever parody on "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet", with appropriate variations, after which a messenger appeared opportunity with a package containing gifts of silver. Following the dinner, the evening was spent informally, in singing old favorite songs.

COURSEY-NATION

Marion F. Coursey, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Coursey of Topeka, Kas., and Miss Ethel Nation, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nation of Alliance, were married Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Coursey, 320 West Third street, County Judge Tash officiating. The groom has been employed as a machinist in the Alliance shops for the past eighteen months, and has made his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Coursey. He served in the navy during the war. The bride was educated in the Alliance city schools and has been employed as a stenographer in the railroad offices for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Coursey left on No. 43 Monday for Billings and points west on a honeymoon trip, and they expect to locate in the place that strikes their fancy. At present they favor Portland or Seattle.

BOY SCOUT BANQUET

Company 1 of the Boy Scouts will hold their annual banquet at the Baptist church November 19. Places will be laid for the thirteen members and thirteen officials. During the dinner informal talks will be made by the officers. Following the banquet stereopticon views will be shown accompanied by a lecture on scout work.

Mrs. James Carmody entertained six guests at a party Friday evening. Rook and taffy pulling were the diversions of the evening.

Edgar Howard of Columbus, Nebraska, editor of the Columbus Telegram and former lieutenant governor of Nebraska, was in the city Friday and Saturday, visiting with friends and attending to business matters. While here Mr. Howard was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rumer and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas. He left Saturday afternoon for Chadron.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller were dinner guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Laird, on which occasion roast wild goose was a feature of the entertainment.

H. P. Coursey left Tuesday morning on a four-day auto trip to Scottsbluff, Bayard, Mitchell, Minatare and other valley towns. He saw the Herald man only ten minutes before the time he was due to start, and had not yet selected a companion for the trip, and wasn't real sure that he could find one in that time.

Don't forget the bazaar at the Parish House this afternoon and evening. 101

Mrs. W. E. Cotant left Tuesday morning for Hot Springs, where she and Conductor Cotant will make their home in the future. They have leased their commodious home on Cheyenne avenue for a period of several months at least.

Mrs. Atz and Miss Cutts spent Sunday in Edgemont, S. D.

BOILER BLEW UP BUT NO ONE IS INJURED

The boiler at the Alliance Steam laundry went to the bad Monday afternoon, although it had been inspected only a short time ago and pronounced in perfect condition. The explosion followed putting a supply of cold water into the boiler. No particular damage was done to anything save the boiler, although the work of the laundry was delayed fully twelve hours and the employes worked practically all of Monday night in order to get caught up with the world.

New Styles in Ring Mountings

A silk dress or a diamond ring can be out of style, yet silk and diamonds are always fashionable. The styles that change are the way of making the dress and the way of mounting the diamond.

At Thiele's you can select a mounting of platinum or gold that is the very latest style, have your diamond reset in it the same day and leave he store with a fashionable ring which will show off the gem to its best advantage, and apparently be a brand new ornament.
