It's a mean letter, and must have hurt the feelings of the editor something awful, unless he's fully as thickskinned as the governor intimates

The trouble arose when Governor McKelvie first gave the list to the newspapers. The Omaha Daily News got hold of the governor by long distance telephone, and interviewed him. The governor was unwilling, but nevertheless talked, and The News reporter took it all down. Later his secretary called up the News office, and demanded that the interview be not published. The News resented the attempt on the part of the governor to censor its columns, and after stead. made, printed it.

M. E. CHURCH

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, we will be favored by a visit from Brig. William Andrews of Des Moines, who comes to the city in the interest of the Salvation Army work of this place. He will speak at our church in the morning and in the evening at the Salvation Army hall, the occasion being the grand opening of their work. We have hoped for many months that Alliance might have a Salvation Army post, and now that our hopes are realized, every one who can should avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing a man so prominent in the work as Brigadeer Andrews. They are worthy of our heartiest support and co-operation. The pastor will speak at the eve-ing service. Monday night District Superintendent O. S. Baker will hold the first quarterly conference of the year. This is an important business meeting and all persons interested in the welfare of the church should be pres-MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.
