

SOCIETY

Mrs. Minor Morris entertained nine guests at a one o'clock luncheon at the Palm Room of the Alliance Hotel. Five courses were served, tables were decorated in the Christmas colors, carried out in red carnations and ferns. Bridge was played during the afternoon, Mrs. W. R. Metz capturing first prize, which was a beautiful corsage bouquet. Guests in attendance were—Mesdames Elmer McManis, E. H. Boyd, Robt. Reddish, C. E. Harshman, A. V. Gavin, Chas. Geagins, Jas. Geagins, A. B. Sturgeon, Earl, Mallory, J. J. Dixon, J. Kridelbaugh, W. R. Metz, Wm. Mitchell, Gantz, Harry DuBuque, Blain Beckwith, Jas. Hughes, Fred Holsten and Miss Mabel Young.

DANBOM—WILTSEY

Mr. Milton T. Danbom and Miss Martha Wiltsey, both of Hemingford, were married Thursday noon at the Methodist parsonage in this city. Rev. Mearl C. Smith officiating. They will make their home in Hemingford for the present.

Miss Katherine Fletcher entertained a few friends last evening. Those present were Misses Sylvia DeMoss, Frances and Katherine Fletcher, and Messrs. Kenneth Mohrman, Horace Fuller and Walter Cargyle. The evening was spent playing rook.

THE CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST
"Making Religion Real" and "Keeping Vows and Promises," are the subjects for the sermon next Lord's day. These sermons will be scriptural and will help you in your Christian experience. The church in its various departments of service invites your earnest enlistment and whole-hearted services. Much of the crime that is committed today is credited to the great spirit of indifference that is shown toward religion. If you desire to make the world better, be faithful to the church and the ideals for which it stands.

The Bible School and Endeavor society will welcome you and find a place for the expression of your needs.

Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Lutheran church will have services in the English language next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Sunday school at 9:15 in the morning.

F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Presbyterian men's club were the guests of Messrs. Zamzow, Rhein and Miller at the monthly fellowship luncheon of the club Thursday evening at 6:30. The luncheon was served by a committee of the ladies auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Spence. A splendid set of views of Greater New York and the various religious problems in our greatest metropolitan area were presented by the pastor. The newly refinished basement makes an ideal place for the club meetings. All the men of the church and congregation are urged to attend and enjoy these meetings.

All are cordially invited to the regular services of the church. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; morning worship at 11 o'clock—"The Great Cloud of Witnesses." Evening service at 7:30 o'clock. A short sermonette or scripture exposition will precede the showing of pictures of missionary work in Persia. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

First Presbyterian church, corner Box Butte at Seventh street.

A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Morning services—Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m. Evening services—B. Y. P. U., 6:30 p. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m.

Mr. B. L. Kline will speak morning and evening. Everybody welcome.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

The C. E. of the Christian church held their semi-annual election of officers Tuesday evening at the church. The following were chosen: President, Glenna Lawrence; vice president, Leah Weaver; secretary, Lillie Simpson; treasurer, E. O. Svendsen.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sermon topic Sunday morning will be "Christ in the Home."

In the evening at 7:30 a set of pictures will be given showing the native life and customs of the Indians of the southwest. The fine set of slides were prepared by Dr. Elmer E. Higley, who has held notable pastorates in Denver and Des Moines, and who spent several days in Alliance last summer. It is something different from any of the other sets of pictures that have been shown, in that it deals with a class of people in our own land.

The pastor and family greatly enjoyed the house-warming surprise party given at the parsonage last Tuesday night. The cleverly devised program was unique and most heartily enjoyed by everyone present. Come again, brethren.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

The Junior Endeavor of the Christian church held a social at the church Wednesday evening. Sandwiches, wafers and hot chocolate were served.

McElhaney woman, who was accompanied at the time by a well known Box Butte county man, prominent heretofore in business circles.

One theory of the motive for the crime is that Anderson, who was known to be trying to borrow money with which to purchase whiskey, had gone to Mrs. McElhaney and her companion in an effort to secure it. He was unsuccessful, and the belief of some is that he made threats of telling a number of things when placed on the stand at the Urban Zediker trial.

Anderson came to Alliance in the summer, and took a position as barber at the Nation shop. Within a few days after he had hit town, he participated in a crap game, and won $800. This success dazzled him, and although he lost this money before long, he gave up regular employment and joined the gamblers' sessions. He is said to have made a number of good winnings, and to have augmented his revenue by peddling booze.

grips, and rested from time to time on the way to his home. At the corner of Seventh and Laramie he saw Zediker, who was going east across the street. This point is only a block or so from the Isaeson home.

The prosecution drew from Zediker an acknowledgement that he had served a term in the Colorado state penitentiary for an offense similar to the one with which he is charged. On May 22, 1914, he pleaded guilty to burglarizing the home of Jerome Weir in Colorado Springs, and on July 4, started in serving a sentence of from three to six years at Canon City. He was later paroled, but not until he had served some time on his sentence.

PRINTERS DEMAND A MUCH HIGHER SCALE

The printers of the Bridgeport typographical union, which embraces Bridgeport, Gering and Scottsbluff, have served notice on the publishers of a much higher scale of wages that will be demanded in 1921. Hand compositors, under the new scale, are to receive $20 per week; more than the old scale, and linotype operators are to receive $25 more per week. The publishers have the option of signing up the contract and paying the scale, refusing to sign and turning their shops into "scab" concerns, or closing up their places of business for want of labor. What action the publishers will take has not yet been determined.—Bridgeport News-Blade.
