

SAYS FOLDNESS FAILS IN INTERPRETING OMENS

Alliance, Nebr., December 13.—To the Editor of The Herald.—Dear Sir: In your issue of December 10, there appeared a short article by Mr. Foldness. His inference that the great conflict of Armageddon is to be staged in Asia Minor is more likely to be the result of a somewhat popular conclusion than a true interpretation of prophecy. The natural mind is more prone to be absorbed in the ephemeral character of time and place than it is able to assimilate and digest the many lessons evolving out of them. The word Armageddon expresses that conflict between truth and error, which is more likely to be contested in the most vigorous and active centers, rather than find its solution in remote localities of the earlier effete civilization. Consequently this country of ours is more likely to be the chosen arena of that world contest, seeing that its citizens have involved the several characteristics and qualities of the world's peoples.

It would also be well for him to consider the fact that the prophecies so carefully audited have both their solar and stellar, etc. divisions of time, and that the places adapted for the manifestation of evolved and incarnated characteristics are as little regarded in the divine mind as are our idolatrous and sensual personalities. Further, with all forward movement there is a coincidental recessionary movement set up in all the manifesting degrees of activity. It, therefore, becomes impossible for the mundane mind to arrive at any precision respecting the harvest of those Christian qualities at present under consideration.

His materialistic conception of a colossal and fabulous city to be erected at the restoration of the Hebrew nation is about as fantastic as the "hodox Christian acceptance of a heaven up yonder," whose streets are literally paved with gold, or the forlorn hope of the world's emancipation from the prevailing unscientific conceptions and interpretations of sound government.

Again, his declaration that fourteen nations will collectively rule and favor the earth with a thousand years of peace must certainly exhaust our most exalted and flattering conceptions of the enduring unity and amicability of nations. No such plurality of nations could possibly uphold their plurality of governments without the severity of disputes and conflicts arising. True, they might temporarily hypnotize themselves into a godless truce, to later be bruised and broken under the living rod of a restorative justice. Such an experience in snow being such an experience is now being encountered, which holocaust of suffering will continue until the respective nations are decimated and their resources exhausted.

The fury and fanaticism expressing through the voluntary wills of men corresponds to the recessionary process incident to the unfolding and expression of the elected and chosen characteristics of the God-man. The present conflict of Gog and Magog is prior to the final conflict of Truth and Error, which prepares the earth in its baptism of fire, both spiritual and literal, for the incoming and establishment of one nation and one people which in the scientific of their organization will constitute the temple and city of the living God; and express in their qualitative appointments the twelve respective functions of the tree of life. This integral people will diligently and consistently uphold the true form and function of universal government; which pattern is figuratively expressed in the co-ordination of the physical heavens that scientifically manifest the law of perpetuity and therefore righteousness to be involved in the recognition of one central throne and star. Yours truly,
E. J. CLARK.

OBITUARY

Ethel Tabor, a daughter of W. K. and Ola Tabor, was born at Arnold, Nebr., April 22, 1899. When she was only ten years old she made a religious profession and united with the Methodist church. In 1913 she moved with her parents to Stapleton, Nebr. Here she was united in marriage to Ralph Magnuson. To this union were born two children. Two years ago they moved to Alliance, Neb. About four weeks ago she went to St. Joseph's hospital for medical treatment, but every effort to save her life was in vain and on December 10, 1920, she departed this life at the age of 21 years, 7 months and 18 days. She knew her time had come, her loved ones were summoned and she told them as well as her pastor that it was well with her soul, and although she wanted to live, she was ready to go. As immediate family whom she left to mourn and revere her memory is a heartbroken husband, two sweet little children, Vernon and Maxine; six sisters: Mrs. Mary Hynes, Corksville, Wyo.; Mrs. Lottie Crow, Alliance; Mrs. Hazel Barber, Stapleton, Neb.; Helen, Loda and Marie at Arnold, Nebraska; three brothers: Harvey at Stapleton; Carl at Alliance and Edward in Arnold. Many other relative and friends.

Car of Colorado hard coal now on track. Dierks Lumber & Coal company.

Miss Ruby Campbell left Wednesday for a short visit with friends and relatives in Omaha.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

To the business man, retail or wholesale; to the manufacturer; to the commission man; to the trucking company, the Ford Model T One Ton Truck makes an irresistible appeal because it has in its chassis all the merits of the original Ford car; the wonderful Ford Model T Motor, the dependable Vanadium steel chassis, and the manganese bronze worm-drive. A strongly built truck that serves satisfactorily and lasts in service. If these statements were not true, the demand for Ford Trucks wouldn't be so constantly on the increase. We will be pleased to take your order for one or more Ford Trucks, will see that you get reasonably prompt delivery, and will give you an after service that insures the constant service of the Truck. But don't wait too long. Get your order in promptly.

DON'T RISK IT

NO USE taking the risk of carrying money or of having it around the house. You may have it stolen and you may lose your life at the hands of some bandit. Deposit your earnings in our bank and pay your bills by check. We do the bookkeeping.

Be Practical

The young man in love often goes into raptures about "the blue of the sea in her eyes and the golden haze of autumn in her hair," but remember this, young man—she'll eat just the same as any other healthy girl. Therefore get down to practical affairs. Save your money, deposit it in a good reliable bank like ours and get ready to own a home for you and the girl and to provide the three square meals a day that you will both need as long as you live. You know, when poverty comes in at the door, love sometimes flies out of the window.

WE PAY FIVE PER CENT ON DEPOSITS
