F. R. Moore, who has been a member of the Herald force for the past two months, will leave for Brashear, Mo., Sunday, to resume charge of his newspaper at that place. Mr. Moore had planned to make his home in this city, where Mrs. Moore is employed as a teacher, but the lessee of his plant didn't prove to possess the proper sticking qualities. He has made a number of acquaintances here who regret that he will be unable to remain. It is possible that at some time in the future, he may be able to make arrangements to permit his return.

"Merry Christmas Everyone!"

It's an age-old, timeworn adage, but there's nothing that will ever more fully express our wishes, and so we are wishing it for you.

The nearer we approach the happy Yuletide Season, the more we are impressed with the warm, throbbing, joyous significance of "Merry Christmas," and this year it's going to be a very Merry one.

Then "Merry Christmas" Everyone!

For the best that this year brings to us is the revival of that old-time spirit of warmth and contentment, interspersed with a glad, new joy. We have at last stripped away some of the shucks of show and superficiality and have found revealed the rare, true, untarnished kernel of the old-fashioned Christmas—the gift spirit of service.
