ALLIANCE WOMAN RECEIVES LETTER FROM BELGIAN SIRL

Mrs, L. H. Highland has received a letter from Manette de Norman, living in Brussels, Belgium. The little Bel-"adopted" by Mrs. gian misa was Highland, who has been sending money for her support for a number of months. She writes in French in a beautiful handwriting for an elevenyear-old, and is apparently very anxious to please her American friend.

Her letter follows: "Madame and Dear Godmother: For the first time I am writing you and I offer you my earnest wish for happiness during the year which has just begun, and tell you of my gratitude because you have taken me under your protection. You know, Madame, that I am an orphan of the war. My father was killed at the Yser, the 24th day of October, 1914. Before the war he was agent for the Sea and River Insurance company. His death caused us, mama and me, great sorrow, and placed us almost in poverty. Mama has two hundred francs pension, but due to the increased cost of living she has been obliged to accept employment in an office, although her health is not very good. The money which is sent us from you each month pays for my instruction. I am eleven years old, I am in the fifth year of studies, I am learning English, and as soon as I know how to write it, I will write you in English. In the hope of receiving news of you I take the liberty also of asking for your photograph. I beg you to accept, Madame and Dear Godgratitude.

"MANETTE de NORMAN. "Madame: I join with my little city to F. A. High, superintendent of daughter in offering you my sincere the Anti-saloon league of Nebraska, hope for happiness during this new at Lincoln. year, and in telling you of my very deep gratitude for the protection you have afforded my little daughter.

Peter Haag, aged inmate of the county poor farm, was taken to the state insane hospital at Hastings last Saturday evening. Mr. Haag was adjudged insane two years ago, but had been allowed to remain at the poor farm, his condition not being particularly serious. The past two or three weeks he has been giving Superintendent Burkholder considerable trouble, not only refusing to bathe himself or allow himself to be bathed, but because of an hallucination that everything with which he had anything to do was filled with batteries. He refused to get out of bed and dress when Sheriff Miller called for him, but finally allowed himself to be per-

PRINTERS' LINGO

The following is a specimen of printers' technical terms as commonly used in most printing offices. This was handed in to the News by Col. Folks Huxford, he having clipped it out of an old issue of the Valdosta Times published about thirty-five years ago. It shows that printers' terms used back then are similar to those of today. The clipping follows:

"William, put Gen. Washington on the galley, and then finish the murder of the girl you started yesterday. Set up the ruins of Herculaneum and distribute the smallpox. You need not finish that runaway match but have the high water in the paper this week. Put a new head to General Grant and lock up Jeff Davis. Slide the old dead matter into hell and let that pi alone until after dinner. You can put the ladies' fair to press, and then go to the devil and put him to work on Deacon Fogy's article on 'Eternal Pun-ishment.' "-Homerville (Ga.) News.

GOOD READING

Did you ever stop to think that the advertisements of the home merchants in this newspaper make it a better newspaper?

Well, it does. Advertising teaches progress, economy and confidence. It teaches progress in keeping you abreast of the times, of all that s new and desirable in foods, clothng, homes, supplies and comforts

It teaches economy through in-forming you where the best prices may be had-because economy is not only in the mere saving of noney but also in the intelligent spending of it. .

It teaches confidence through the thowledge gained in knowing you ive as other folks live; enjoy the things they enjoy-that you have te same advantages.

The text book of our worldly comforts is written in the terse lines of our merchandising adver-tisements—and it is well worth

If we read the advertisements we soon realize that they can work to our advantage just as much as to the merchant with something to

The Hyannis Tribune may safely be classed among the irreconcilables. That newspaper publishes occasional digs at the Burlington because of the "stub" train that handles passengers for that place, and the following is a fair sample: "When the 'stub' train Bedford, F. Silsby, F. left Alliance Tuesday there were sixteen passengers aboard. When it left Ishmael, C. Hyannis there were seven aboard, none whom were ticketed further east than Mullen so that after it left there the conductor and brakeman each had a coach to himself. Traveling men inform The Tribune that this is almost a daily occurrence and residents along the line wonder what they have done that the Burlington continues to punish them by maintaining the 'stub' instead of handling the business with 43 and 44."
