A New Back for an Old One—How an Alliance Resident Made a Bad Back Strong

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Follow the example of this Alliance citizen. Mrs. Archie Middleton, 622 W. 2nd St., says: "In our home Doan's Kidney Pills are a family medicine. I had taken them when I had backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint. I had dizzy spells and headaches that came on when my kidneys were not just as they should have been. A short use of Doan's Kidney Pills always regulated and strengthened my kidneys. The attacks of backache and dizzy spells left too. I bought Doan's at Holsten's Drug Store." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Middleton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Chaplain Of House May Retire

Rev. Henry N. Couden, blind chaplain of the House of Representatives, who completed with the opening of the present session of Congress his 25th year of service. This is the longest period of service by any chaplain of the House. It has been suggested that Dr. Couden be made chaplain emeritus and that a young man be appointed as active chaplain. Dr. Couden served in the Civil War and it was while fighting under Grant in Mississippi that he was blinded by bullets from the enemy. At the same time he was wounded by shots in the face, arm, leg and foot.

MANY BILLS ARE BEING MURDERED BY LEGISLATURE

Sifting Committees Busily Engaged in Both House and Senate—Only a Few Have Been Signed

Lincoln—The Nebraska state senate in the first twenty-two days of session was actively engaged to the extent of summarily executing forty-two bills, or an eighth of the total number introduced in that body. Senate bills numbered 349 at the close of the last day for introductions. Most of these bills were put to death on reports of standing committees, without having ever seen the general file. The senate committee of the whole has been generous-minded, and only in rare instances has there been even a flurry in the consideration of a bill that has come forth with the standing committee's stamp of approval.

On the general file awaiting the action of the committee of the whole are twenty-one proposed measures, and twenty others have either passed on third reading or are awaiting that order of business, ready to be finally acted upon.

Four of the 617 house bills have sifted their way through the two chambers and have been signed by the governor, and about twenty others are on their way through the regular channels of passage in the upper house.

Three Welfare Bills Signed

Three of the fifty-three children's code commission bills on child welfare became laws with the signature of Governor S. R. McKelvie. The bills, which passed both houses, and which the governor has signed are:

Authorizing the judge in default divorce cases to make investigations of his own when the interest of minors is involved. Extending the present law on cruelty to or abandonment of children from 14 years old in the statute to 16 years.

Are Against Boxing Bill

Despite the earnest plea of American Legion spokesmen for a legislative enactment which would permit boxing exhibitions on a non-commercial basis and under state regulation, the house committee on miscellaneous subjects voted to report for indefinite postponement the Legion's boxing bill.

Representatives Palmer, Ruddy, Mears and Barbour have signed a minority report on the bill, and the house will be asked to place it on general file.

Regulate Size of Bread Loaf

One pound as the minimum weight for loaves of bread received the final approval of the Nebraska representatives in the passage of the Smith bill by a vote of 83 to 5. The bill allows larger loaves to be baked and sold in weights of 1½ and 2 pounds and higher multiples of one pound. It permits one ounce overweight, but nothing under. No attempt is made to fix prices.

Will Test Siman Language Law

On the same day set for a special hearing before the senate committee on education on the Norval bill to repeal the Siman foreign language law an appeal was filed in the supreme court of Nebraska from a conviction of a German teacher under that law in Hamilton county. Should the Siman act be done away with, it would have the effect of annulling this conviction and any others obtained.

Would Have Teachers Take Oath

The senate has taken favorable action on a bill which requires every one connected with educational institutions, public and private, to take an oath to respect and support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of Nebraska and to obey laws. The bill applies to every one connected with the management, discipline and instructing force in public and private institutions of learning.

Allen Land Bill Up Again

Representatives McFarland, Snow and Murphy have signed a minority report on the Japanese land ownership bill, which the judiciary committee of the house voted to recommend for indefinite postponement. The bill, introduced by Mr. Davis, is modeled after the California law, which bars Japanese from acquiring lands in that state, or from holding extended leases thereon.

Kill Free Pass Bill

The senate has killed a bill introduced by Senator Hoagland for the purpose of permitting railroads to give reduced rates to ministers of the gospel and to give free passes to a lot of others, all of which is now prohibited by the provisions of the anti-pass law.

Ask New Game Laws

Nebraska fishermen have recommended to the standing committee on game and fish legislation of the state legislature that fishing with a hook and line be permitted the year around. Other requests by sportsmen are: open season on chickens from September 16 to December 31; no size limit on bullheads, crappies and sunfish; open season for doves, geese, ducks and all other water fowl; closed season on rabbits from April 1 to September 16, and increase of penalty for violation of the state game laws.

J. G. Skipper, the Bingham man who issued a couple of "no fund" checks a couple of months ago, came very nearly being out of luck. A warrant was issued by County Judge Tush, and Monday Sheriff Miller proceeded to Gering to apprehend the gentleman. According to his usual custom, the sheriff accepted a check for $60.20 covering the short checks and the expenses of prosecution, and brought it to Judge Tush. The judge refused to accept it, saying that according to his announced plan, he had stopped assisting in compounding a felony and that so far as he was concerned he would follow the law, which provides that the culprit be bound over to district court for trial. There was some little discussion as to whether Sheriff Miller would return to Gering for the prisoner, but County Attorney Bayse took pity on the brother and dismissed the complaint against him.

The above remarkable photograph of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, was taken as that vessel stood out of New York harbor. The vessels of the Atlantic fleet left their various yards for the annual winter cruise on January 3, 1921 and assembled on the Southern Drill grounds from whence they proceeded to Guantanamo, Cuba, for a short stay.

The fleet left Guantanamo for the Panama canal Monday, January 17 and slipped through the canal to meet the Pacific fleet for maneuvers and visit south American ports before returning to the Atlantic.

"Home, Sweet Home"—that's the music for me

IT WAS a rotten night.
RAIN, WIND, mud, slush.
AND AFTER a hard day,
IT MADE me sore.
TO GET all dolled up.
JUST TO go calling.
ON A pair of fish.
I NEVER could see.
BUT ORDERS is orders.
FROM FRIEND wife.
AND "GEE," I said.
"THIS IS a bum life."
THEN THE phone rang.
AND THE party was off.
I CLIMBED out quick.
FROM THE soup and fish.
INTO THE easy clothes.
AND SAT by the fire.
TOASTING MY toes.

AND WATCHING my wife,
QUIETLY KNITTING away,
IN THE firelight.
AND I heard the rain,
BEAT AT the windows.
AND THE winter wind,
HOWL AROUND.
AND I stretched out,
IN THE old arm chair.
TOOK UP a book.
LIT ONE of those cigarettes,
THAT "SATISFY."
AND SAID, "Oh, Man,
IT'S A great old life."

IT'S a great life, all right—sometimes. But in fair weather or foul, you've got a lean-to if you've got Chesterfields—they always "Satisfy." It's all in the way we blend these fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. And mind you—the "Satisfy-blend" can't be copied!
