

AT THE CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

"Sanctification" is taught in the scriptures, but it is far different than what we ordinarily hear about under that name. The minister believes in sanctification and will preach on that subject next Lord's day morning. At the evening hour the subject will be, "Be ye Reconciled to God."

From all reports, multitudes are now turning to the Lord and accepting Him as their savior. This is no time for the church to sleep. Many are like Ephraim who was wedded to his idols. Break loose from these and give the church whole hearted service.

Make the Bible school attendance 200 and fill the Endeavor prayer meeting full to overflowing. You can lead many souls to the Lord. Make next Lord's day another record-breaker. The Christian life during the week and a reverence for the house of God at worship will bring results. Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

The regular meeting of the young people's class of the Christian church will be held in the church basement Monday evening. A social time will be enjoyed after the meeting.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Remember the church supper Friday evening at 6:30 p. m. for all members and friends of the church. The annual church budget will be presented and pledges taken for the year's work. Other items of business and interest to the church may be presented by officers and others. A program is being prepared. Come.

Sunday services at the regular hours. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Aim—150 by Easter, on-time attendance and a prepared lesson. Morning worship at 11 o'clock: "Sin and Its Forgiveness." Evening service at 7:30 "Sin and Its Punishment." These two themes will constitute a survey of the dark fact of sin and the necessity of a Saviour and the necessity of retribution to unrepentant sin. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to these services.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

On Sunday morning at 10:30 there will be English services at the Lutheran church. Sermon topic: "Our Dying Saviour's Cry—'I Thirst.'" Sunday school at 10 o'clock. F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Some of the aims of the Baptist church: To do business in this community for one purpose only—to serve. Religion is as necessary to a man as any thing else. This church can best serve this community by the co-operation of everyone, both in and out of the church. As between greed and labor we stand for the poor man. As between liberty and oppression we stand for liberty of speech, pen and pulpit. We seek the favor of no man or set of men at the cost of principles. The pastor having seen the slavish side of life, working from ten to sixteen hours a day underground, naturally feels more at home taking the side of the laboring classes. We read the periodicals published by the trades in order to keep posted with that greatest of silent, but nevertheless, real battle that is going on between capital and labor. We believe that the time is coming when the church will yet act as the great pacifier in this conflict.

Last Sunday was red letter day, both in crowds and result. Come to the following services: Sunday school—classes for all ages. Preaching morning and evening. Subjects: morning—"Shall we take children into the church?" Evening—"Christ and Social Life." The latter a sermon especially for young people.

Remember come early to get a good seat, for this church is always full. Come to the church with a mission, message and welcome.

B. J. MINORT.

METHODIST CHURCH

The two weeks' revival meeting closing with Easter Sunday will begin Sunday night. On this evening, music will be furnished by the large chorus choir, and a large junior chorus on a special platform in the north alcove of the church. In addition to other special selections of music, we will have the privilege of hearing a noted boy soloist, Master Joe Holland, who has sung in the Bill Sunday tabernacle meetings and other important gatherings.

Monday night will be rest night. Our helpers will arrive sometime Monday, and will be ready to assist in the Tuesday night meeting. Rev. E. L. Butler will do the preaching and Mr. B. S. Daugherty will have charge of the music. We invite the public to attend these meetings and assure them a heart warming time.

MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.
