A certain newspaper editor published one successful issue of his newspaper. Everything that happened in the community was taken to the party concerned, who promptly had the news suppressed, and the final outcome was that each subscriber received a blank sheet on publication day. The editor is said to have spent an enjoyable night-dreaming happily that he had offended no one.—Empeco News.

AT THE CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The church is closed for repairs and nterior decorating. There will be no services of any kind at the church next Sunday. All Sunday school pa-pers will be held and distributed the following Sunday.

The annual congregational meeting was held Tuesday evening of this week. All reports revealed the church not only suffered, but knew how to liminess it on the powers that be:

this is absolutely necessary in the discharge of his duty day and night, that the engineer of your yard at the upper terminal bridge, should make the engine ding and dong and fizz and spit and clang and bang and here and too, the ladies' nuxiliary has been very successful, having receipts for the year of nearly $500. Other organizations have acquited themselves with the membership of the church and six were restored. Twelve letters were given and one member died during the year. About ninety church services were held and four communion services. Over $1,000 worth of beautifully colored slides instructive of the work of the church as carried on by the home and foreign boards have been shown as well at the Red Cross lectures and the Boy Scout pictures. The year has witnessed a marked interest in all the work of the church. The Lord hath crowned the year with His goodness, for which we give our heart-iest thanks. At the close of the con-gregational meeting, F. A. Bald was elected to the board of trustees. A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Even in dollars and cents a person who regularly attends church is better off than he otherwise would be, for worship quickens those great business virtues-industry, honesty and thrift. Church attendance promotes good health and lengthens life, for it is not work but worry that kills, and the vielding of the mind and heart to the Most High drives out worry and brings

This is what you get and will do if you attend the following services at our church, if you are not connected with other churches. Come, you are welcome. Subjects as follows:

Morning. "A Plea for Exemption." Evening, "The Man up a Tree." Were you ever up a tree? And the limb breaking and you were afraid to jump down? Come and hear this sermon as well as the other.

All evening services a half hour later from now on. Afternoon services at 2:30. The coming church meets at this hour, adults welcome also.

LUTHERAN CHURCH Next Sunday 400 years have elapsed since Luther appeared before the Diet at Worms, and so courageously de-fended the truth of the Bible which for centuries had been throttled. In memory of Luther's faithful stand, which gave to us the open Bible, we shall have a special service. The service will be in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the German language. F. DROEGEMUELLER, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST "Simple doctrines of the church of Christ," is the subject for the morning service. The evening subject is. "The Conversion of the Ethiopian." These will be sermons on first-principals and as always the evangelistic note will be emphasized. We are expecting another great audience and
