SOCIETY

The M. E. choir rehearsal was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dow, where a most delightful surprise awaited the singers after their practice. The date being the wedding anniversary of Supt. W. R. Pate and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dow, the event was celebrated by a double wedding ceremony. Rev. Merle C. Smith officiating, getting his inspiration from a mammoth catalog. Mrs. Dunning played the wedding march as the party entered, led by David La Mon as "flower girl" and Janet Deering bearing the rings on a large pillow. The brides then entered, adorned in the conventional white, while Mr. Pate was supported by Miss Graham in the role of groom's mother, and Miss Edna Benedict "gave away" the blushing grooms, C. A. Dow. The blushing grooms were radiant in the very latest attire. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, and the members of the choir bade the newlyweds goodbye with many wishes that anniversaries might come oftener than once a year.

Miss Avis North was delightfully surprised by thirty-six of her friends Friday evening, at a shower given by Mrs. S. J. Epler and Miss Maude Wilcox, at the home of the former. A delicious two-course lunch was served, table decorations being sweet peas. An embroidered Madeira luncheon set was presented to Miss North by the teachers, and miscellaneous gifts by the rest. Among other features of the evening's entertainment was the announcement in a clever verse, of the engagement of Miss North to Mr. Edgar Wright, superintendent of schools in Harrison, Neb.

The E. S. P. club and their husbands met at the home of Jas. Hilton Saturday evening and enjoyed a short program, after which an oyster supper was served. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing. About one hundred and twenty-five were present. May 4th is the date of the next regular meeting of the club, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Peterson.

At the annual election of officers of the Order of Eastern Star, held last Tuesday night at the Masonic temple, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Ella Young, worthy matron; A. H. Robbins, worthy patron; Mrs. Ethel Bogan, associate matron; Mrs. Helene Ponath, secretary; Mrs. Ada Spencer, treasurer; Mrs. Gertrude Pate, conduceress; Mrs. Nellie Wilson, associate conduceress.

The following program has been planned for the regular meeting of the woman's club next Friday afternoon. Roll call: "Proverbs"; reading, Ecc. 12, Mrs. Mable Feagin; lecture, "Women and Civilization," Rev. B. J. Minor. Hostesses will be Mesdames John Beach, Earl Mallery and Earl Meyer. A vote will be taken to decide the work for next year.

Lester and Cecil Beal entertained a crowd of about 150 neighbors and friends at barn dance Saturday evening. A number of young folks from town attended and a most enjoyable time is reported. It is hoped that another affair will be held in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hall will entertain a few friends informally tomorrow evening, in honor of H. K. Teller, who is leaving soon for his homestead near Gillette, Wyo.

St. Matthew's Episcopal Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon at the parish house. Mrs. L. L. Smith will be hostess.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Lena Williams, 315 East Fourth street, Thursday, April 28, at 2:30 p. m.

The Hole In Your Pocket

Are you troubled by having money "burn a hole" in your pocket? That is a common fault of money. If you have your money in the bank, whether it be much or little, it will not burn any holes and it will be there when you need it.

Money carried on the person is a temptation to spending. Money in the bank does not offer this temptation. You may hesitate before writing a check where you would not hesitate to spend if you had the money with you.

We offer you the advantage of our banking facilities and invite you to open a checking account with us.
