THOUGHTS THAT LINGER

"I always think before I speak."
"That's only part of the trick," replied Senator Sorghum. "The more difficult portion is to keep your audience thinking after you get through."
—Washington Star.

Since May, 1918, no less than twenty-six men have been killed in the government's aerial mail service. The mileage of that service was 1,600,000 miles. This is a pioneer service and the hazards are great. Compared with the tragedies of the railway mail it is like a death sentence. But it is being extended, improved and made safer and in another season or two will be established where and how it can serve its greatest good. Those who have fallen have blazed the way for permanence.

LOOKING FORWARD

Another thing we are looking forward to with happy anticipation is apple-blossom time in Normalee.—Ohio State Journal.

The Rhode Island board of agriculture claims to have discovered a fertilizer that will grow grass and kill weeds at one and the same time. Couldn't they get up an improvement that will also mow the lawn?

Minister says jazz sets Indians wild. Which proves Indians are much like other people.

One reason why we get so few facts from Russia is that most people escape with only their lives.

HEREDITY

Do you believe in heredity, Nupop? I certainly do. Why, for instance, is my six-months-old always trying to get his toes in his mouth if it isn't because of his dad's constant struggle to make both ends meet?—Boston Transcript.

The trouble we are encountering in adjusting the mixups the war has left us is, the impulse to play the hog is so strong that it is difficult to act with good common sense.

WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

(U. S. Bureau of Markets)

Dairy Products.

Feeling steadier in butter markets and trading apparently on more confident basis. Dealers anxious for more settled market before active storing season opens. Prices in eastern markets 1c-1½c lower than week ago; Chicago about 1 cent higher. Closing prices 92 score: New York 35½; Chicago 31½; Philadelphia 37 and Boston 35.

Grain.

Although prices closed higher than a week ago, the market trend was uncertain. Unfavorable crop reports from Oklahoma, keen demand cash wheat seaboard and a strong cash market caused big advance the 4th and 5th, but with good rains in southwest, reports Omaha and Minneapolis shipping cash wheat to Chicago, and weakened technical position due to big advance, prices slumped on the 7th, and during the remainder of the week fluctuated within comparatively small range. On the 11 unfavorable crop reports, acceptance of allied terms by German and statement of Secretary Wallace that price level of fifty per cent above pre-war basis would benefit the whole country produced bullish sentiment and higher prices. Better milling demand in Chicago and Kansas City. Country offerings all grains small; decreased movement expected in the near future. Stocks at terminal markets continue to decrease. In Chicago cash market No. 2 Red winter wheat $1.47; No. 2 hard $1.52; No. 3 mixed corn 61c; No. 3 yellow corn 61c; No. 3 white oats 39c. For the week Chicago May wheat up 6c at $1.44½; May corn 2c at 60½. Chicago July wheat up 7½ at $1.16½; July corn 2½ at 63½. Minneapolis July wheat up 6c at $1.22½; Kansas City July 7½ at $1.10; Winnipeg July 3½ at $1.46½.

Most classes and grades of live stock at Chicago advanced the past week. Hogs up 5c-25c; beef steers 25c; butcher cows and heifers 25c-50c. Feeder steers about steady. Veal calves down $1. Fat lambs up 7c-12c; fat ewes and yearlings 25c-50c per 100 pounds. Feeding lambs unchanged. May 11th Chicago prices: hogs, bulk of sales $8.40-$8.85; medium and good beef steers $7.50-$9; butcher cows and heifers $6.25-$9; feeder steers $6.75-$8.35; light and medium weight veal calves $7.25-$9.50; fat lambs $10-$12; feeding lambs $7-$8.50; yearlings $8.25-$10; fat ewes, $6-$7.50.

Stocker and feeder shipments from eleven important markets during the week ending May 6 were: cattle and calves 25,809; hogs 5,935; sheep 9,291. In eastern wholesale fresh meat markets fresh beef ranged steady to $1 lower per 100 pounds; veal and pork loins down $1-$2; mutton steady; lamb up $1-$2. May 6th prices good grade meats: beef, $15-$17; veal, $16-$18; lamb, $22-$26; mutton $16-$18; light pork loins $23-$25; heavy loins 15-$20.

Hay.

Receipts very light but demand continues very poor. Prices practically unchanged. Kansas City market is stronger because of rainy weather curtailing country loading. No. 1 timothy quoted New York, $30, Cincinnati, $20.75; Chicago, $20; Minneapolis, $19.50; Atlanta, $29. No. 1 alfalfa—Kansas City, $24; Memphis, $27.50; Atlanta, $30. No. 1 prairie—Kansas City, $15.50; Minneapolis, $15.

Feed.

Diminishing wheat mill feed output causing firmer market at mills. Consuming markets still dull with little demand. Cottonseed meal higher on better export demand. Holders not ## pressing sales. Linseed meal and corn feeds dull; market weak. Spring bran quoted: Philadelphia, $25; Chicago, $20; Minneapolis, $16; hard winter bran, Kansas City $19; standard middlings, Philadelphia $24, Minneapolis $15, Chicago $18.50. Linseed meal at New York $36.25; Minneapolis, $28; Kansas City, $30.50. Cottonseed meal at Memphis $27; Cincinnati $32.25; Kansas City, $34. Gluten feed, June shipment, Chicago, $26; Cincinnati, $29.30; New York $33.62; hominy feed Cincinnati, $25.

MARRIAGE OF CONVENIENCE

Office Boy (anxious to go to football match): "May I have the afternoon off, sir? My grand—"
Employer: "Oh, yes, I've heard that before. Your grandmother died last week."
Office Boy: "Yes, sir; but—my grandfather's getting married again this afternoon."—Punch.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

There are several ways of using baked ham. One of the best is to eat it.
Honey may be used for sweetening almost anything but a traffic cop. Spaghetti should not be cooked too long. About ten inches is right. A cold bath will be found more pleasant if made with hot water.—Milwaukee Journal.

BAD BUSINESS

Father Duffy is credited by the New York World with this after-dinner story:
"An old sexton asked me, 'Father, weren't the Apostles Jews?' I said they were. Puzzled, he demanded: 'Then how the deuce did the Jews let go of a good thing like the Catholic church and let the Etyalians grab it?'—The Outlook.

A RAY OF HOPE

Curate (at local football match): "How do you think we shall get on?"
Captain: "Well, sir, our goal-keeper ain't much use, our center-forward 'as a gammy knee, and the left 'alf-back may not turn up, but—my brother Jim is refereeing for us."—London Opinion.

ODD, ISN'T IT?

"If a man had put a hundred dollars in a savings bank twenty years ago," said the statistician after dinner, "it would amount to over two hundred now, and he could buy almost as much for it now as he could have got for the original hundred at the time he began to save."—New York Sun.

Buyers of illicit whisky seem to be as gullible as the buyers of wildcat oil stock.

Pedestrian: "What difference does it make? If I cross at the corner you will knock me into the middle of the block, and we might just as well begin there."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

WITH THE TRIMMINGS

Mrs. Newlywed (giving first order to butcher over phone): "Please send me a pound of steak."
Butcher: "And what else, please?"
Mrs. Newlywed: "And—and some gravy."—New York Central Lines Magazine.

Now that there are no more back beer signs, it is impossible for some people to know when spring has come.

Ninety-nine times as many people read about "shimmy" dancing as ever see it. This greatly filters the shock.
