SOCIETY

VOGEL-FARQUET

Mr. Fred Vogel and Miss Aline Farquet were quietly married at high noon Saturday at the home of Rev. S. J. Epler. A few close friends and relatives were witnesses and Miss Bernice Wilson and Norman McCorkle acted as bridesmaid and best man. Others present were Mrs. Vogel, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robbins. The bride wore a suit of dark blue tricollette and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Vogel left on No. 44 for Sidney where they will visit friends. They expect to be at home at 612 Platte avenue after June 1. The groom is employed at the Alliance Times office as linotype operator, and the bride was formerly employed at the Alliance hotel.

Mrs. Fred Carlson entertained Saturday evening in honor of Miss Esther Johnson, eighth grade teacher at Emerson school, whose marriage to Mr. Frank Smith will take place next month. Miss Lucille McNichols and Mrs. Hazel Harsh were assisting hostesses. Sixteen guests were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. A feature of the evening's entertainment was a mock wedding which was a decided success and productive of much mirth. Floral decorations were red roses, and handpainted place cards cleverly announced the wedding day as follows: "If you will listen well, you may hear these birdies tell of a quiet wedding soon, at York on the 9th of June." A dainty luncheon was served. Guests present were Mrs. Elizabeth Cornu, Misses Izola Worley, Inis Jennings, Katherine Jeanett, Devona Price, Blanche Wilson, Eva Crocker, Emma Davis, Jeanette McConnell, Ida Clark, Eva Booth, Mrs. I. E. Tash, Mrs. Nettie Donovan and Opal Moore.
