

EVERYBODY SEES A CHANGE IN FATHER

Grateful Son Says His Father Looks Like Different Man Since Taking Taniae

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over twenty years and has paid out thousands of dollars for medicines and doctors," said G. W. Slayton, a well-known Cobb county farmer, living a short distance out of Atlanta, Ga.

"We tried nearly everything trying to cure him and he went off to the Springs, thinking maybe the water might help him but it just looked like nothing would reach his trouble. Then he tried dieting and lived on liquid food until he almost starved, but even that failed to do him any good and he just kept going from bad to worse."

"I don't guess there ever was a case as stubborn as his and if there ever was a confirmed dyspeptic, he was one of them and I guess he would have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Taniae."

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my father saw an advertisement in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his and he knew what they said about it was the truth so he got it right away and began taking it. Well, sir, it acted just like magic—everybody notices the change in father. Why, he is just like a different man and sits down to the table and eats like a farm-hand. Only yesterday he ate pork and turnips for his dinner and ate so much we were actually afraid he was going to over-do the thing but he laughed and said nothing hurt him now and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time."

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that I think people ought to know about it and I want to say right now that I would not give one bottle of Taniae for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

SIGNS

"Excuse My Dust," ran the sign on the back of the speeder's car.
"Watch My Smoke," said the motorcycle cop as he started in pursuit.—Detroit Motor News.

On complaint of Superintendent W. R. Pate, three high school boys were ordered to appear in county court last Wednesday at 4 p. m., to answer to a charge of smoking cigarettes without having attained the legal age of eighteen. The boys, badly scared, appeared before Judge Tash, who assessed a fine of $10 and costs against each of them and then promptly suspended it during good behavior, which each of the boys assured him would be during a lifetime.

AT THE MOVIES

"Something to Think About," a Cecil B. DeMille production, is the attraction at the Imperial tonight. The story centers around Ruth Anderson, daughter of the village blacksmith. A rich man, David Markley, lives in the neighborhood and, becoming interested in Ruth as a small girl, sends her away to school. She returns a young and beautiful woman, and it is understood that she and David are to marry. On the impulse of the moment she elopes with a youth of the village. Her husband, killed in an accident, leaves her destitute, and, returning to her native town to find her father blinded, she is in despair, until a series of dramatic events leads to her reconciliation with David.

Will Rodgers has an appealing role in the Wednesday feature, from the pen of Irvin S. Cobb. It is one of the "Judge Priest" series, entitled, "Boys Will Be Boys." The story deals with "Peep O'Day," who, when he receives a legacy, buys himself a little red wagon, some brass-toed boots and other things children like and goes out with the town's poor children to regain his lost childhood. How he comes into his own and is established as a reliable and worthy citizen makes one of the most interesting pictures ever made by this star.

The Thursday bill is "Bitter Fruit," a six-reel super-production filmed among the Florida Everglades. It's a thrilling yarn of shipwreck and pirates, of slavery and love, with a number of scenes that should insure an evening's interesting entertainment.

EVERYONE WANTS IT—

Wants the price of cleaning and pressing to go down but they want the quality to be maintained. That is right in line with the trend of prices. You can't blame us for trying to hit the popular vein. The Model Cleaners and Dyers have lowered the price but kept the quality up where years of experience has placed them. All they ask is a chance to demonstrate the worth of their statements. Here is what we charge:

The only trouble with a 60-horse-power motor is that every darned horse balks at the same time.—Camden Daily Courier.

Man is a resourceful creature—he can always find plenty of excuses when he has no reasons.

RANDOM SHOTS

Too much spring weather maketh the column short.

Bill Mounts started Saturday, which means that the fishing weather has officially arrived.

Sound rather peculiar to hear folks say: "I'll go tomorrow—if it don't rain."

We never used to figure on the rain.

Couple Scottsbluff girls got lost in the bad lands west of Scottsbluff the other night and it took a searching party five hours to find them. Every time a friend of ours goes into the lake region in east Alliance we advise him to take along a supply of provisions.

Doc Wilbur Crafts, who wants to make all Sundays blue, is working on Omaha, but he won't get anywhere in hot weather.

We hope he hits Scottsbluff before he leaves the state. They have too easy a life in that burg.

The saddest time of all is when the spring fever hits the ardent swain. Ask the tall boy who intended to go to Lincoln to escort a friend to the dance of the season, and in trying to squeeze in five minutes extra sleep after the alarm clock sounded, forgot to wake up and missed the train.

As we understand it, the man who is in that shape don't dare to take any chances.

If you bring a trunk with you, be sure to pack all glassware so it doesn't rattle.

Even the cops have ears.

The worst thing about donning your B. V. D.'s ahead of time is that there isn't any relief when the hot weather really arrives.

A few people haven't forgotten the war. During the march of the ex-soldiers down Box Butte avenue on Memorial day, at least six men were observed to remove their hats while the colors were passing.

But a lot of them forgot.

It Pays to Advertise.

"Father! Father! The bull-pup is chewing up the roll of film I got for my camera, and won't let go!"
"Go and get some of that tooth-paste that removes the film from the teeth!"

We can sympathize with some of the doughboys who didn't put on their uniforms. It's been only a year or so, but we had to use a shoe horn to get those cornucopia trousers on.

Wonder if women suffer that way with corsets?

If so, our sympathy is extended, right here and now.

And one of the buddies said, in a tone that expressed great concern: "Let's pray he doesn't have to sneeze."

We didn't.

Just Our Status.

A crabby millionaire, as he got out of his limousine, was approached by a newsboy. "No, I don't want a paper. Get out!" he snarled. "Well, keep your shirt on, boss," replied the newsboy. "The only difference between you and me is that you are making your second million and I'm still working on my first."

From all reports, June is going to be some month.

Wonder who started all this anyway?

Caption from a recent movie—at least it was shown recently: "The true test of a man is when he's wearing a dress suit or pajamas."

Attention of Bill Maupin.

"Believe me, she'd make some chorus girl."
"Howzat?"
"Well, she's got three qualifications."

"What are they?"
"Well, a good voice is one of them."

But, seriously, most of those K. C.'s looked pretty spiffy in their dress suits. They aren't any more painful than most of the uniforms.

Honors for the most imposing appearance go to J. W. G.

There'll be an epidemic of those cords, mark our words.

The Best We Can Find Today
One of the wings of the plane had broken and its pilot, after crashing through a mass of planking and plaster found himself resting on a concrete surface in utter darkness.
"Where am I?" he asked feebly.
"You're in my cellar," came an ominous voice out of the blackness.
"But I'm watching you."

This is the last line for today.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Alliance people. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. C. O. West, 303 Yellowstone, Alliance, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a standard medicine for kidney trouble in our home and have been for years. My people had Doan's in the house all the time and whenever any of the family needed a kidney medicine it was always Doan's that was relied upon to straighten them up. I sometimes had attacks of dizzy spells, headaches and backache. Whenever I had one of these attacks I took Doan's Kidney Pills and they always cured me of the attack promptly. It is a pleasure to give Doan's my hearty endorsement."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. West had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hugh Perkins stopped off here on his road home from the state G. A. R. encampment at Hastings. Mr. Perkins was elected junior vice commander. He says that Hastings left nothing undone that would make for the pleasure and comfort of the old boys. Mr. Perkins is an old settler in these parts, having homesteaded near Hay Springs thirty years ago. He has lived in Hay Springs for the last twenty-five years.

Bureau of Information In Postoffice Building at Washington, D. C.

To the Public:—It is the wish of the president that visitors to the seat of government shall have every opportunity to get full information concerning all governmental departments. It is especially his desire that all those who come to Washington to transact business with any department or bureau of the government may quickly be advised as to the exact location and means of reaching the particular department or bureau in which may be centered the business which they desire to transact.

For this purpose there has been established a bureau of information on the ground floor of the postoffice department building, located on Pennsylvania avenue at Twelfth street, which is in charge of competent people who will definitely answer queries of this character.

The public is advised of this arrangement and invited to make use of the facility. WILL H. HAYS.
