THEIR TAKING WAYS
A stranger reported to Sergeant Mike McLean that he had his grip, overcoat, and umbrella stolen before he was in town two hours, and he said, "There will be an awful reckoning in this burg when Gabriel blows his horn over it."
Mike replied: "Gabriel will never blow his horn over this town; he'll steal it before he gets a chance to blow it."—Lackawanna Journal.

BEREA.

A very pleasant day was spent at the Berea school house on Friday. Our teachers, Miss Esther Nation and Miss Della Swanson, closed the spring term of school on Thursday and on Friday gave a picnic, at which nearly all of the parents were present. A large table was placed in the yard and was soon well filled with food, to which all present did full justice. Music was furnished by the school phonograph. Ice cream, cake and lemonade were enjoyed later in the afternoon. Both teachers have been re-engaged for next year, and all of the patrons are well pleased.

The community church at Berea will give a children's day program June 12. The exercises will begin at 10:30, and will be followed by a basket dinner, to which all are invited. This will be the first Children's day program and a large attendance is desired.

Mrs. Poole is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Cass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sherrick visited Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Sherrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Maben.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mundt gave a surprise party at their home southwest of Berea Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Hilda Heifner, who has been attending school at Alliance, also one of the graduates. A large crowd was present. The lunch consisted of cake, coffee and sandwiches and was furnished by Charles Jackson, Harve Cass and the Knapp Bros. A pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Miss Nelle McDonald has been on the sick list for the past few days and was unable to attend the school picnic at Berea Friday.

Mrs. Pearl Lumas accompanied Mrs. Bonesack and daughters to Alliance Friday.

Mrs. Charles Cass and nephew, Russell, expect to leave in a few days for a month's visit at Bridgewater, Ia., and other places.

Mrs. Fred Clayton and daughter, Fern Marie, were visitors at the school picnic.

Our young people were well represented at the graduating exercises at Alliance Thursday night. Those from here were Donald Hawkins, Eva Clayton, Bessie Hawkins, Frances McDonald, Will Maben, Chris Panwitz, Rudolph Panwitz.

The Berea ball team went to Tom Collins' Sunday and brought home the bacon, the score being 16 to 10 in favor of Berea. A close game was played for a while, but in the last inning Berea thought it was time to play ball and several good hits were made and the scores began to count up fast. The Berea players were: D. Jackman, 1b; H. Hawkins, 2b; B. Mundt, 3b; C. Jackman ss; Frank Reed, p; Sam Mundt, c; Fred Clayton, lf; P. McDonald, cf; G. Bush, rf. Home runs were made by Paul McDonald and D. Jackman, the latter having two to his credit. A large crowd furnished the rooting for both sides. After the ball game, Berea's rider, D. Jackman, gave an exhibition of broncho riding.

JUST SO

Fritz Leiber, the Shakespearian actor, was submitted to a long and trying interview not so long ago by a woman reporter, who finally wound up with this question: "Don't you think, Mr. Leiber, that if the immortal William were alive today he would be looked upon almost in the nature of a curiosity?"

"Indeed, he would," answered the actor. "Just think of it! He'd be more than three hundred years old."—New York Evening Post.
