

Alliance school patrons will be interested in the line-up of teachers in the city schools for the coming year. The list of instructors is not yet completed, there being two vacancies yet to fill—one in the high school and the other at Central school.

There have been a number of resignations from teachers who were here last year. In the high school, resignations have been received from Mr. Chase, Mr. Cunningham, Mrs. Emerick and the Misses Keith, Bishop, Broth and White. The following new teachers have been assigned to the high school: Mr. Phelps, Mrs. Inice Dunning and the Misses Johnson, Miner, McHugh and Waite.

In the Central school, Misses Abbott, Lind and Watwood are the new instructors. Resignations were received from the Misses North, Ruder, Moore and Batie.

At Emerson school, the Misses Johnson, Marsh and Mrs. Carlson have resigned, and Miss Worley has been transferred to Central school. New assignments include the Misses Sandstrom, Young, Soper, Coleman and Miss Harris as assistant to the kindergarten teacher.

There will be two teachers on duty at the city hall, one from the Emerson and one from the Central school.

The Alliance Campfire Girls are back in the city, after a two weeks' camping trip spent at Hot Springs, S. D., where everyone of the citizens made special efforts to make their stay a pleasant one. According to the girls, they were quite successful in their efforts, and the two weeks will long be remembered as a most enjoyable occasion.

The camp was broken up Saturday, and the return trip made in automobiles, ten or fifteen Alliance men driving down to bring them back. As was the case when the girls were taken to Hot Springs, rain interfered seriously with the schedule. Friday night, the last one in camp, a heavy rain descended that soaked the tents and in some cases the bedding, with the result that some of the girls took shelter in the hotels. The Alliance men drove up Friday and Saturday, most of them making the return trip Sunday. The last automobile load arrived Monday afternoon.

Among those who donated cars for the return trip were A. S. Mote, Tom Miskimen, George D. Darling, S. W. Thompson, R. M. Hampton, Walter Schott, and E. T. Miller. There were not so many cars as on the preceding trip, as during the last week in camp a number of the girls came home with friends.

Alliance post No. 7, American Legion, will hold its regular August dinner at the Fern Garden of the Alliance hotel at 6:30 p. m. on Thursday evening of this week, and a large attendance is desired and expected. The post has held no meetings during the summer months, following the resignation and removal from the city of Post Commander Dean J. J. Dixon. This will be the annual election of officers and the notices for the meeting warn the legionnaires that if they fail to attend and crab about the legion's activities next year, they are due to be shot at sunrise. The post has also requested ex-soldiers having claims for compensation or otherwise against the government to be present, so their cases can be prepared for presentation to the squadron of war risk officials which will be in Alliance office September 5, 6 and 7.

Members of the Alliance Rotary club and their families will hold a picnic dinner Wednesday evening at the grove on the R. L. Harris farm, a mile north of the city on the Chadron road. The festivities are scheduled to start at 5 o'clock. No set program for the entertainment has been provided, but there is no danger that it will be a dull affair, as the committee will in all probability have a few suggestions for amusement. The Rotary club is taking a vacation during the month of August, and the Wednesday picnic is the only scheduled meeting for the month.
