NO INDORSEMENT.

"Is your beef tender today?" asked the shopping husband. "Sir," replied the sentimental butcher, "it is as tender as a woman's heart."

Seaside news hints that the waves are not going to be wilder this summer than the pretty maidens who are shooed off the beaches.

The pedestrian used to smell the cooking beefsteak and say, "Ah! Now when he smells it he says 'Those were the happy days.'"

A man with will power is one who gets up in the cool of the morning and takes the cold plunge he vowed he would take the sweltering night before.

Going Through the Files

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

It has been several years since baseball has received so much attention in Alliance as it has this year. We have now two fully organized teams and other more players to make up another team.

C. L. Drake, proprietor of the hotel at Guernsey, is in the city today. He came up with the view of buying the Hotel Charters but owing to the numerous legal complications connected with it he thought best to pass it up.

Second-hand Estey Organ, walnut case, only $40.00. One old style Estey Melodion in good trim for $10.00.

Second-hand orchestra Trombone, nearly good as new, only $12.00.

TEN YEARS AGO. Jack Miller has been appointed drill master for the boy scouts and will give them his best attention.

Good pictures of the cyclone can be secured by calling at Hosten's drug store.

A national convention of colored people of the United States is being held in Denver this week.

On Wednesday, August 16, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barnes, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Laveta, to George D. Darling.

Lost—A lady's coat from buggy at the Checkered Front Barn. Please return to Mallory Store. Mrs. J. Manion.

ONE YEAR AGO. Oswald Kittleson, then and now a resident of the Nebraska state penitentiary, was letting out a few warwhoops because Judge Tash had sent a number of his children to the state home for dependent children.

A petition was being circulated asking the city council to make provision for the appointment of a second night policeman. Several robberies and larcenies had been committed during the two weeks previous, and adequate protection was desired.

The paving has slowed down considerably this week. The chief difficulty seems to be in finding men to hire, and in getting them to stay hired after they agreed to go to work.

One Alliance youth is living in terror these days. He slipped a note into a basket of bread headed for Denver. Yesterday he got a love letter, a lock of hair and a photograph of the homeliest girl in the world, and she thinks she's engaged to him. He turns pale every time a train whistles.

BLACKROOT The farmers of Liberty precinct met last Monday evening and organized a Farmers' Union of fifteen members.

Word was received Tuesday evening by F. Mitchell from his wife at Lincoln that she was the mother of a fine eight pound boy, August 8.

They are two or three threshing machines that will be in the neighborhood soon, but they won't thresh much grain unless they lower the price as the neighbors are going to stick together for lower prices.

Improved health statistics are easy to account for. A lot of people who used to be confined to their homes have no homes.

A nation that prefers industrial attention in legitimate business to controversial activity need never fear any serious isolation.

The pug dog always sounded as though he were breathing his last and now government figures show that he is extinct.
